Hello all,

This is your reminder for the upcoming September 6th, first Tuesday of the month, pot luck, which will be held at Betsy Dalton's @ 6 Soap House Lane in Hope Valley. Tel. 401 - 529 - 8733 @ 6 pm. . To me, it's an added bonus when TWR airs our national monthly webinar, sharing the grantee program on the first Thursday of the month, this Sept. 1, @ 8 pm, which will be before our meeting. You might want to tune into that and see the high points they discuss. You must register, https://togetherwomenrise.org/upcoming-events/.

While you are on the site, you will see there is an upcoming TWR book club "big read" on Sept 15, for "Between the Mountain and the Sky" by Maggie Done, followed by our October "big read", The Night Watchman, by Louise Erdrich, - where for this national book club, the speaker, Wanda Hopkins, a Native American, from Narragansett and a long time supporter of the Tomaquag Museum who will be our guest speaker.

I will not be at the potluck, but Betsy, who has hosted before, & I know she will make it a social and interesting evening as you watch the video on "Ever Free" our grantee in Uganda who will receive $50,000. Once again the focus is on gender equality….. The mission of Everfree is to accelerate lasting freedom for human trafficking survivors around the world, giving victims support & economic sustainability.

Our donations have climbed to over $43,000 since our chapter began. WHAHOOOOOO! I thank you and all appreciate the support this sends to our organization. If you would like to contribute, simply go to the TWR web page - several different ways.

See you at Cathy Solomon's who has volunteered her home in Charlestown for our October potluck. Thank you Betsy and Cathy. And we go forward…….

Enjoy this fall "Labor Day" weekend -

Peace and hugs to all,

Gail Burchard - chapter leader - Peacedale, RI
