

And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 3:18

I knew I needed God in my life. I spent my entire life avoiding Him and my character showed that. After a long time I finally gave in and listened to a friend who had been inviting me for a good year. This church has changed my life.

I was looking for a church to worship and heard good things about the church. I came once and never left. I have given myself back to the Lord and will never leave again.

We enjoy the wonderful kids ministry and how welcoming everyone is. The kids have so much fun learning God's Word.

It felt like home right away and we never left. We do not merely "go" to church. We are the church by serving each other and our community.

My church meets people where they are in their everyday lives and presents good, solid truth. Nothing but the truth.

I didn't know Jesus before coming to this new church. The community here surrounded my husband and I with acceptance, love and grace. Through knowing everyone here, I began to know Jesus. We've never experienced such deep and lasting relationships. The best thing has been my relationship with God.

I feel forgiven and loved.

There was a void in my life. I'd lost my relationship with God and I wanted it back. I didn't have healthy relationships and I felt lost. Now because of this church I have a much better relationship with God. I feel fulfilled and whole - the void is gone. I've never been closer to God. I now have healthy relationships with others.
