FIGHTING WHITE SUPREMACY IN NEW ENGLAND WORKSHOP APRIL 1ST

The workshop, New England Landscape of White Supremacy is around the corner!

The event will take place at Westminster Unitarian Church, 119 Kenyon Ave East Greenwich, beginning at 9:30. There will be refreshments for breakfast and lunch.

The outline of the information will look something like this:

PART I

The myths we tell ourselves and how this influences how white supremacy manifests itself in New England

Who is active in NE – learn about the most active groups in N.E.

What white supremacists do in New England - most of white supremacist activity doesn't make the news, learn about what they do to recruit new members, promote their ideology and terrorize targeted communities

Who or what is Antifa – understand the history of antifascism in how it looks today

PART II

The state and white supremacy

Post Jan. 6 the mainstreaming of white supremacy (Culture wars)

Breakout groups:

Tools for the groups (see below), scenarios or prompts TBD

1) the spectrum of resistance developed by Jewish resistance fighters in WWII
2) detailed list of "What you can do, as a community or an individual"
3) and the concept of courage because we recognize that much is asked of us

---

Bring your open mind and your ideas.

If you have questions, please email Jan Searles at janetsearles5@gmail.com