

Caroline Dawson, LMSW
AgeWise Advocacy & Consulting

Our speaker today will be Caroline Dawson, LMSW, a member of AgeWise Advocacy & Consulting. Caroline supports individuals and families in the work of living and aging wisely. She demystifies questions regarding aging, healthcare, death and dying. Caroline provides education and tools to individuals, families and facilities to enhance positive, effective communication and quality of life.

AgeWise Advocacy & Consulting provides professional services for seniors and families facing challenges due to aging, declining health, cognitive impairment or a medical diagnosis in the Kansas City area and Lawrence, Kan. The locally owned firm is owned by social workers who help clients and their families navigate complex choices that come with aging or a difficult medical diagnosis.