Alden's Punch	Mare	Chestnut	21	2	Sanctuary	$ -	2	Alden's Punch was rescued from the slaughter pipeline at the age of 19 after she could not have foals any longer. She is very gentle and loves people as well as her horse friends.
Allusual	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	15	4	Sanctuary	$ 14,617	6	Allusual raced 6 times then was a broodmare for a few years. This shy girl was a kill pen rescue and came in with her friend, Down Neck Louise. They are inseparable and are never far from one another in their field.
Blum's Rush	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	27	6	Sanctuary	$ 243	3	Rosie, as Blum's Rush is called here at Foxie G, was rescued from the slaughter pipeline at the age of 20. She only raced 3 times and was not used as a broodmare for racehorses, but we don?t know anything else about her past. She is as kind and sweet as any horse can be.
Borrigone	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	15	2	Sanctuary	$ 76,443	30	Bonnie entered the slaughter pipeline soon after her racing career of 30 starts with earnings of over $76,000. An old injury to her knee limited her ability to have a high-level show career but she was able to do lower level work. Bonnie was adopted and returned twice due to behavioral issues. After a veterinary work up, it was discovered she had spinal arthritis and would need to be retired from riding. Bonnie now lives happily in retirement here at Foxie G .
Caliente Kitty	Mare	Other	16	11	Sanctuary	$ -	0	Kitty was rescued by Foxie G from the slaughter pipeline in 2013 and has no known race record. She was carrying a foal when she was rescued but the foal was stillborn the day Kitty arrived in quarantine. She is extremely untrusting of people, though she tries to be brave. With some quiet one-on-one time with an understanding person and some good treats, she can be brought out of her shell.
Charing Cross	Gelding	Bay	19	6	Sanctuary	$ 117,345	52	Charing Cross is one of many horses at Foxie G who was rescued from a kill pen. He is a very durable horse as shown by his extensive racing career with 52 starts while earning over $117,000. He is a big bodied, handsome gelding with a wonderful demeanor but issues with his feet have stopped him from having a riding horse career.

Chasbo	Horse	Chestnut	12	1	Rehabilitation	$ 32,466	3	Chas raced only 5 times then began a second career as a teaser for a prominent farm in Pennsylvania. Unfortunately, he was sold at New Holland auction and ended up in the slaughter pipeline earlier this year. Very few rescues are equipped to handle an intact horse and he was dangerously close to shipping to slaughter. This big, handsome boy became a Foxie G kid. He is very kind and will be gelded soon. After being a teaser for many years, he has stifle issues and will not be able to be ridden.
Coco Point	Gelding	Chestnut	18	8	Sanctuary	$ 242,646	71	Coco was rescued from a kill pen in 2016, after starting 71 times and winning 12 races in 7 years while earning over $242,000. He was in very poor condition when he arrived but had a super sweet personality. Now that he's feeling good again, this tough horse has a lot of spirit. He's only pasture sound due to a fused ankle, but he loves attention.
Cureincy Speech	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	22	5	Sanctuary	$ 161	3	Cureincy Speech, now called Pinkie, was a kill pen rescue. Although she only started 3 times with no earnings on the track, Pinkie had obviously been schooled as a show horse at some point in her past and knew how to jump. However, she was not staying sound when ridden and was placed in our sanctuary program where she is thriving.
Down Neck Louise	Mare	Bay	21	4	Sanctuary	$ -	4	Louise was rescued from the slaughter pipeline as an older mare. She was evaluated for our adoption program but was not sound when ridden. This sweet, quiet mare loves visitors and the treats they bring.
Drevan	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	17	3	Sanctuary	$ 13,305	23	One of our kill pen rescues, Drevan is a big, elegant looking mare. She was placed for adoption but slipped in her paddock and fractured her pelvis. Now fully recovered, she is unable to be ridden but is pasture sound.

Elissa'sroyalimage	Gelding	Chestnut	16	2	Sanctuary	$ 51,560	35	Royal raced 35 times in claiming races. He was standing in one of the worst kill pens on the East Coast when we pulled him. He had an old injury to a hind pastern but was able to do light work under saddle. He was adopted but was returned when the injury started to cause him issues under tack. He now lives a happy life in our sanctuary program.
Fly Boy	Gelding	Bay	26	5	Sanctuary	$ -	0	Fly Boy had done his job for 18 years and had done it all. Although he never raced, he field hunted, barrel raced and carted kids around. He was taken to a local auction to be sold but thankfully his owner realized what was best for him. He came to Foxie G and is one of our ambassador horses. You could not meet a kinder, more gentle horse than this boy.
Freedom's Honor	Gelding	Dark Bay/Brown	24	10	Sanctuary	$ 325,436	47	Freedom's Honor raced from 2002 to 2009 and is a stakes winner of over $325,000. He had 47 starts and 7 wins, including the Colts Neck Stakes. In 2014, he was pulled from the kill pen, after being weighed and tagged for slaughter in Mexico, with his best friend, Jewel Power, and the two were brought to Foxie G. They do not like to be separated but are very content out in the field. Topaz, as he is now called, is an assertive horse with a strong personality.
Galadriel Lady	Mare	Chestnut	19	2	Sanctuary	$ 198,638	53	Lady was rescued from the slaughter pipeline where she ended up after not being able to have foals any longer. She was a warhorse on the racetrack with 62 starts earning $198,638 over a six year career. She suffered a severe pastern injury in her last start and arthritis has developed over the years but she sound and happy in her field.
Ginontherim	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	9	4	Sanctuary	$ -	0	Ginny found herself on a dealer's lot after she was not competitive as a racehorse. She had a painful subluxated pastern injury in her right hind and was standing in an icy, concrete barnyard. Foxie G was notified by a concerned person, and we purchased this sweet mare for $100. The pastern injury has healed but Ginny cannot be ridden again due to the severity of the injury. She is now enjoying life with her friends in a large paddock.

I Got'm	Gelding	Dark Bay/Brown	18	7	Sanctuary	$ 141,402	45	M was a tough racehorse, starting 41 times over a 5-year racing career while earning over $141,000. Another kill pen rescue, this big boy is fairly anti-social and does not mind showing his displeasure with the pesky humans that bother him from time to time. He would prefer hanging out with a few friends and is not trusting of people but has a few chosen horse friends he pals around with.
Jewel Power	Mare	Bay	20	10	Sanctuary	$ 4,968	3	Jewel only raced 3 times in 2007, winning once. In 2013, she was pulled from a kill pen along with Freedom's Honor. These two are inseparable and are very happy to stay out in a field together. Jewel gets anxious about change, but she is a sweet girl.
Lina Picky	Mare	Chestnut	14	10	Sanctuary	$ 48,197	28	Lina sold for $39,000 as a 2-year-old at Ocala before starting 28 times between 2013 and 2014, winning 3 times. After suffering a career ending sesamoid injury, she was pulled from a kill pen in 2014, very soon after her last race. Lina is a very sweet girl, and she loves people.
Luhkcatme	Gelding	Dark Bay/Brown	19	9	Sanctuary	$ -	0	Luke is an unraced, and likely never started under tack, gelding who was rescued from a kill pen in 2015. Completely blind in his left eye, this kind boy can be shy sometimes, but he is extremely sweet and enjoys attention.
Meadow Paddy	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	21	8	Sanctuary	$ -	3	Meadow Paddy has an interesting past. She is a kill pen rescue who previously competed in barrel racing, after a brief 3-starts at the racetrack. She can be very quick under tack and does not seem to enjoy being ridden. In Meadow's best interest, she was permanently retired and is enjoying a slower, happy life.

Oop's the Red	Gelding	Chestnut	24	10	Sanctuary	$ 63,687	27	Oop's the Red, aka Big Red, raced 27 times while earning over $63,000. He won 3 races, including the MTA Stallion Auction Laddie Stakes. After racing for 3 years, Big Red competed as an open jumper for many years before eventually finding himself at the New Holland auction. He was bought by a kill buyer, weighed, tagged for slaughter, and was just minutes away from being shipped when he was bailed out by Foxie G. He suffered a severe laceration above his left eye during transportation to the kill buyer's facility, crammed into a trailer that was too small for him. Red is not an adoption candidate due to the physical and mental trauma he has suffered, but he is a very sweet horse and is thriving in retirement.
Passion for Money	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	13	7	Sanctuary	$ 56,906	28	Passion is a little, sweet but shy mare. She was a kill pen rescue when she came to Foxie G. Passion started 28 times and ran predominately in claiming races. Because of chips and arthritic changes in her knees, she has been retired to our sanctuary program.
Pastel	Mare	Bay	22	4	Sanctuary	$ 83,185	63	Pastel was a war horse when she raced, running 63 times and earning $83,185. She went on to a broodmare career for many years. Sadly, when she was unable to have foals any longer, she was found in the slaughter pipeline. Young at heart and a born leader, she keeps her little herd in line.
Prize Secret	Mare	Gray/Roan	33	2	Sanctuary	$ 35,866	35	Kat, as she is affectionately called here at Foxie G, was in the slaughter pipeline at the ripe old age of 31. From what we could determine, she was a show horse for many years and safely carried many children around on her back. Getting too old to be ridden, she was sold at auction and was a shell of her old self when she arrived at our farm. Now in good weight, she is doted upon and pampered every day.

Rockfast	Mare	Chestnut	16	2	Sanctuary	$ 17,840	13	Rockfast is a kill pen rescue and was very close to shipping when we purchased her. She was thin, depressed, and very ill. It took many months to get her healthy and mentally she has never recovered. She is very reactive and worried about anything that changes her routine. In her best interest, we retired her into our sanctuary program.
Royalmissglitter	Mare	Bay	26	8	Sanctuary	$ 86,745	45	Glitter was pulled from the slaughter pipeline in 2016. She started 45 times and won 8 races between 2000 and 2005 while earning over $86,000. Her story in those 10 years in between running her last race and being in a kill pen is unknown. Now this sweet, inquisitive mare is safe here in sanctuary at Foxie G.
Satine	Mare	Bay	23	11	Sanctuary	$ 32,609	17	Satine is stakes placed with 17 starts and one win between 2003 and 2006. She placed second in the Princess Handicap. In 2012, she was pulled from a kill pen while in foal, but unfortunately, she lost her foal prematurely. Satine is very untrusting, making her poorly suited for adoption, but she is very content with retired life.
Senteya	Mare	Chestnut	18	10	Sanctuary	$ 40,500	49	Senteya raced for five years between 2009 and 2013, racking up 49 starts but only one win. In 2014, Senteya was rescued from a kill pen and originally placed into the adoption program, though she was moved to the sanctuary due to a tough, hot temperament that earned her the nickname "Sriracha."
T. Mac	Gelding	Bay	23	7	Sanctuary	$ 18,653	27	Mac is one of many kill pen rescue horses at Foxie G. He raced 27 times and earned slightly over $18,000. After being evaluated for our adoption program, Mac was found to be very nervous under tack and would not relax. At his advanced age, we decided it would be best for this handsome boy to live out his days in our sanctuary program.
Toycat	Gelding	Dark Bay/Brown	22	3	Sanctuary	$ -	0	Toycat, now called Catnip, was brought to our attention when he was standing in a kill pen in horrendous condition. With a body score of 1.5 (one of the lowest) and pneumonia as well as abrasions all over his body, we were doubtful he would survive his first night in quarantine. Catnip slowly regained his health and is now fat, shiny, and content living in sanctuary at Foxie G.

True Joy	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	25	4	Sanctuary	$ 14,140	24	Joy had been run through several auctions and was in a slaughter holding facility when we were notified about her fate. Due to her advanced age and a very large, arthritic ankle, this very kind mare now lives a life of leisure with her old lady friends here at Foxie G.
Turn the Tables	Mare	Dark Bay/Brown	19	2	Sanctuary	$ -	2	Tina hails from a very prominent family of racehorses here in Maryland and was sold as a yearling in 2006 for $100,000. She only started twice as a racehorse with no wins and went on to be a broodmare. When she could no longer have foals, she was taken to auction and was purchased by a kill buyer. Foxie G pulled her, and this lovely mare will now always be safe in our sanctuary program.
Where's Cielo	Mare	Bay	26	8	Sanctuary	$ 28,145	18	Cielo is a 1998 mare by 1982 Belmont Stakes winner Conquistador Cielo. She started 18 times and won twice between 2000 and 2001. In 2016, in her late teens and blind in her left eye, she was saved from a kill pen by good friends of Foxie G. Unfortunately, little is known about Cielo's life between the track and her rescue, but she patiently waits for attention and is kind to all her friends (she even sometimes lets them share her feed).
