2024 Call for Abstracts

The NJAND is accepting abstracts of original research, projects or programs for review. Selected abstract authors will be invited to present a poster of their work at the 91th Annual Meeting of the New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics' (NJAND) on Thursday, April 25, 2024 at Rutgers University- Cook Student Center in New Brunswick, NJ.

Submit your abstract via email to Chrissy Riccardo at: criccardord@gmail.com by Thursday, April 4, 2024. (midnight Eastern time).

As outlined by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, an abstract is a brief, written summary (no more than 250 words) of the specific ideas or concepts to be presented, and a statement of their relevance to practice or research.

REVIEW PROCESS

Research Abstracts are reviewed based on the following:

- Research Statement(clear statement of purpose of research, background or need, focus, clarity),
- Methods (adequacy of research design and analysis to meet objectives),
- Results (summary of data, results and evidence included and consistency with research objectives), and
- Conclusions (scientifically sound, interpretation of the results)

Program/Project Report Abstracts are reviewed based on the following:

- Relevance (clear purpose stated, appropriateness, timeliness, audience intrigue),
- Priority (recognized need; cutting-edge concern),
- Originality (uniqueness of topic or format), and
- Synthesis (evaluation of report results, findings or applications)
