

Radiance Ward, Asst. Public Defender Cook County

Radiance Ward is an Assistant Public Defender at the Law Office of the Cook County Public Defender, on the Homicide Task Force. She has litigated over 100 matters, serving as a first chair attorney in motion hearings, bench trials, and several jury trials.

Additionally, Ms. Ward serves as a coach for the Corboy Fellowship Program in Trial Advocacy. Ms. Ward also serves as an Adjunct Professor in Trial Advocacy at Loyola University – Chicago, School of Law and is a member of the training faculty for the Office of the State Appellate Defender. Ms. Ward volunteers her time with Angel Tree – Salvation Army, InspireHer Chicago, and the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees – where she serves on the executive board of Local 3315.

She is also a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated. Ms. Ward received her Juris Doctor from Loyola University Chicago in 2007, her Bachelor of Arts from Vanderbilt University in 2004, and is a 2000 graduate of Kenwood Academy. She is admitted to the Illinois Bar and is a proud Chicagoan.