As I light these candles, may my eyes be opened to the light of the world. As I light these candles, may my inner eye perceive the light within me. May these rays of light spread blessing through the world: to my family and friends, to all who know me, and to all those in need. (Candle Lighting for Shabbat, Siddur Lev Shalem, p. 5)

On Rosh Hashanah I stated that we should not translate the word mitzvah as “commandment,” because it implies that you must do something or else, which has a punitive connotation. Rather, as Rabbi Harold Kushner wrote, a mitzvah is an opportunity to create holiness. I emphasized a few mitzvot all of us can do, one of which is lighting candles on Friday night. Here is an excerpt from my sermon: “We begin Shabbat by lighting candles, reminiscent of the first light of Creation. For many, it reminds us of watching their mothers and grandmothers light. Knowing that generations of Jews performed this transformative ritual is part of what makes it so powerful … At home, I want you to take an ordinary moment and make it special with two simple acts – lighting candles and saying a blessing. Don’t worry about how you’re dressed, or what’s for dinner, or what time you start – just allow the light into your home and into your life, literally and spiritually!”

My intention was to mail the candles to you directly, but for a variety of reasons it is not feasible. After discussing with staff and lay leaders how to proceed, we decided on a different strategy. Thanks to a generous donor, each Preschool family will receive a “Shabbat Box” including grape juice, a make-your-own challah cover, helpful information about MJC, and candles. Imagine dozens of young children and their families, ushering in Shabbat by saying or singing blessings in Hebrew and by lighting candles! We will empower these families to create holiness and thus strengthen their Jewish identities. Similarly, we will distribute candles to every family in our Hebrew School. For all other members, we will give away candles at meetings and events, or stop by my office and I’ll have them for you! In addition, they will be available for pick up in the ritual and administrative offices. In all cases I will include the candle lighting blessing in Hebrew, English, and transliteration.

So, enjoy the candles! Light them - feel the warmth of Shabbat and the power of doing a mitzvah!

Shalom,

Rabbi Pont

We recently had the opportunity, through the work of our House Committee to install a new camera in the sanctuary which actually works well! They do say that the third try is a charm. Now, amongst other opportunities, Bar and Bat Mitzvah families be able to purchase a copy of their service. We will also be developing new ideas with which to utilize the camera. Yasher koach to the House Committee for getting the job done in an expeditious manner.

Thank you to Marvin Glickstein for planning our annual Kristallnacht Program where Ruth Rosenfeld shared her personal experience from the Holocaust. The program was quite informative.

As you are aware, Cantor Krieger is relocating and will be finishing as our Cantor on August 31, 2018. We thank Cantor Krieger for his years of service to MJC and wish him well in his new endeavors. As such, a new cantor’s search committee is now in place and has begun the process. Thank you to all the committee members for agreeing to serve and to Jeff Katz for agreeing to chair the committee.

Our Executive Director, Bonnie Komito has elected to retire on June 30, 2018. We have a search committee in place for the Executive Director of MJC as well. Len Whitman has graciously agreed to be the chair of that committee. We thank Bonnie Komito for her years of service to MJC and wish her well in her retirement.

We have a lot of interesting events coming up at MJC. On December 19th we will be having Latkes, Vodka’s and Bingo. Come and enjoy that evening with us as we celebrate Chanukah as a community. On January 31, 2018 we will be having Rabbi Jeremy Pappas who is the Deputy Director of AIPAC Synagogue Initiative and the National Director of the Rabbinical Student Program speak about AIPAC. He has led trips of leaders to Israel from all movements of Judaism and has a unique understanding the political, religious, and cultural issues intertwined in AIPAC’s work.

It is especially nice when the community can come together to enjoy special occasions and nice events. We should all be here in the good times and the bad. If anyone has any programming ideas or would like to join a committee please contact the MJC office. Remember, together, we can continue to make a difference and make MJC thrive. Yachad anachnu yecolim laasot et hevdal.

B’shalom,

Jewish Home Theater’s first program takes place on Saturday night, December 9th at the home of Jules and Beth Banks Cohn. Their phone number is 732-446-3436. We will read through two comedies: Animated Conversations by Alan Haehnel and Relative Strangers by Sheri Wilner. First we begin with a light kosher vegetarian/dairy dinner followed by Havdalah. If you have never come to Jewish Home Theater, you are missing one exciting, hilarious and entertaining evening of comedy and camaraderie. Please register with me at 732- 536- 2300 (ext. 118) or cantorkrieger@mjcnj.com.

The New Jersey Cantors Concert Ensemble will be performing a Chanukah concert on December 17th at 6:00 pm at Ahavat Olam in Howell, NJ. Everyone is invited!

I finished my cardiac rehab a week ago and there was a wonderful poem I found in their November newsletter.

A Time to Believe by B.J. Morbitzer

To believe is to know that every day is a new beginning.
To believe is to trust that miracles happen and dreams really do come true.
To believe is to see the Angels dancing among the clouds, know the wonder of a stardust sky and the wisdom of the man on the moon.
To believe is to know the value of a nurturing heart, innocence of a child’s eyes and the beauty of an aging hand.
For it is through their teachings we learn to love.
To believe is to find the strength and courage that lies within us.
When it’s time to pick up the pieces and begin again, believe is to know we are not alone, that life is a gift and this is our time to cherish it.
To believe is to know that wonderful surprises are just waiting to happen, And all of our hopes and dreams are within reach.
If only we believe!

NOSH – New Oneg Shabbat Happening is a wonderful monthly Friday evening Shabbat program created especially for young families. It begins with music, stories, humor and dance followed by a family-friendly dinner.

When I first launched NOSH in 1989 at Temple Beth Sholom in Manchester, CT, young families were hesitant to attend Shul because of decorum issues, and many parents were intimidated by a service that was completely foreign to them. NOSH was created to transform the synagogue setting into a welcoming environment where children and families could meet new friends, form new social networks and enrich their Jewish identity.

As the program evolved we occasionally boosted our audience by having the Hebrew School, and Hebrew High School classes participate. They would lead the singing or present a brief drama or comedy piece. Special evenings also included highlighting Birthday children of the month, Grandparents/special friends’ night and Holiday themes. I continued to run NOSH at Temple Torah in Boynton Beach, FL for 5 years. Now I want to implement it at Marlboro Jewish Center on the Friday nights where there is a dinner.

MUSICAL ACTIVITIES and SONGS: Our sing along builds on a repertoire of traditional favorites and a new song is introduced each month. I incorporate sign language to facilitate learning Hebrew vocabulary and as an important movement component for our attendees.

STORYTELLING: I present a different Jewish folktale each month, choosing stories that portray important Jewish values. I always use special props to enhance each story and encourage lots of audience participation.

HUMOR: Children especially love the “Jewish joke of the month.”

DANCE: The NOSH Israeli dance repertoire has included Zemer Atik, Mayim, Hora Hadera, Mechol Avadiah (To the Right and to the Left), Tscherkessia, Yesh Lanu Tayish, Patsch Dance, and the Hora.

A festive ONEG SHABBAT dinner concludes the fun until next time!

Our first program will be on January 12th at 6:30 pm in the catering room.
At the end of the Thanksgiving weekend, my husband and I were invited to a post-Thanksgiving detox, by long-time dear friends and asked to respond only, Why not?” So after a long weekend of family, eating, more eating, celebrating a friend’s simcha, and more eating, we ventured out to our friends home to find a table set for twenty plus and a crowd of people that we really didn’t know. After first thoughts of why are we here and do we really have the energy left for small talk, I must say that we had a wonderful evening. My friend’s philosophy is that when you have a friendship with people based on shared interests and values, those people will enjoy each other too when they are thrown together in a social setting. After some awkward mingling, everyone sat together at the beautifully set table and the conversation began to flow. There were commonalities, shared Jewish geography, mutual connections, and genuine interest in one another.

In September 2000, I was involved in planning a leadership conference in Israel that was entitled, “Come to the Table.” The phrase became the backdrop to comprehensive learning sessions on tradition, leadership, the partnership between Israel and Diaspora Jewry, geopolitics and more. It is no coincidence that the “table” has become a cornerstone of Jewish learning, family gatherings, and communal providence. The Hebrew word for table is Shulchan, and according to our teachings, the table is a sign of hospitality that is “set with a tablecloth woven of the wisdom of our tradition.” There is a strong connection between food, nourishment and learning that goes back to the Torah, Psalms and Proverbs. I find it so important to make these connections relevant to everyday life and to the opportunities we have as members of a synagogue.

In my inbox this morning I saw a notice from my professional organization about the recent passing of Rabbi Dr. Neil Gillman, z”l who was a cherished Conservative Rabbi, teacher, author and role model. Coincidently, my experience at this recent dinner was heightened by his response to well wishes when he was honored for the publication of one of his books as he said, “What I cherished most was a fabric of relationships. People that I met and exchanges that I had made this place so exciting. More than scholarly debate, encounters, many in my office with students, colleagues and many in adult education. Those were transformative moments.”

It is this “fabric of relationships” that helps us find tradition and meaning in everyday life and hopefully even links the synagogue to our thoughts and actions. MJC is the place that affords us a Shulchan to come together in prayer, learning, friendship and celebration. The conversations that take place between us in shul, at meetings, in our schools and in our programs of lifelong learning can be our transformative moments.

And it is in this spirit, that we ask you if you haven’t already done so, to please consider participating in the 2017 Wall of Honor campaign. A meaningful gift to the synagogue deepens the connection and the relationship that members and their families have. As your names will be etched in gratitude, your donation is testament to the importance of your relationship with MJC and provides the necessary dollars to sustain the synagogue through another year, linking the generations to all our community has to offer. The resources we share benefit the whole and make our table full and more significant to all who partake.

As you place your Hanukkiah on your table this year, enjoy the lights and the warmth of this amazing tradition. Enjoy your family and friends and remember how much we gain from the “fabric of relationships” at all the tables set before us.
I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving with your families and friends.

Our 3rd and 4th graders had a lovely Shabbat Dinner and Service last month. Thank you to Cantor Teplitz, Moreh Justin, Morah Cheryl, Morah Susie, Morah Malca and Cantor Carla for preparing the students for the service.

Our amazing madrichim (teenage leaders), Cantor Teplitz and I led the Junior Congregation Services with lots of ruach (spirit) and enthusiasm.

We are very proud of our three madrichim who received the Youth of the Year Award: Josh Eiger, Cory Fox, and Jason Sherman. Yasher Koach!

Jules Cohn came to teach our children about Jewish National Fund (JNF) for a school-wide mitzvah project. This year, your child’s contributions will benefit ALEH NEGEV (aleh.org). Since 1982, this JNF partner organization has been dedicated to helping children with severe multiple disabilities. It is now Israel’s largest care network for these children.

Our school goal is to raise tzedakah (charity) to help provide these Israeli children with the excellent care that they receive. In prior years we raised close to $1,000 during the school year for other JNF partners, and we hope to raise even more this year. Each child was given a JNF “Blue Box” last month, which will be collected in January and again in early May. If your child did not receive one, please ask for it in the MJC Hebrew School Office.

This has been a busy month for the MJC Youth Groups.

In anticipation of Thanksgiving, our Katan group had fun with crafts that described the many things they are thankful for. They enjoyed a special Thanksgiving treat and are looking forward to a Chanukah program in December.

A large spirited group of third – fifth graders attended the Pre-Kadima program and had a pizza dinner together followed by team games and lots of fun. The Pre-Kadimaniks even learned how to build hula castles with hula hoops. The gym was filled with energy, cooperation and lots of happy kids!

Kadima met twice in November and when they get together, they have fun playing games with a spirit of competition and cooperation. The Kadimaniks prepared for Thanksgiving playing holiday themed games and making pumpkin rice krispie treats.

November was a busy month for the USYers. They met on Thursdays participating in The Office Olympics, discussed stereotypes and Israel, participated in Cupcake Wars, raised money for Tikun Olam and walked the plank during Pirate night. The highlight of the month was hosting the Regional Fall convention. About 180 teens from all over New Jersey spent the weekend together, celebrating Shabbat with services, meals, discussions, lots of singing and USY ruach (spirit). On Saturday night the USYers enjoyed a dance and ice cream. Sunday morning included a musical Shacharit service, followed by bagels and an Israel program.

The weekend was a huge success. A special thank you to all of the MJC families who hosted USYers for the weekend! And thank you to the Moms who helped set up and serve the meals throughout the weekend! The convention could not have happened without the support of the Marlboro Jewish Center community. Thank you for your help in hosting the regional convention.

December will be another busy month as all the youth groups will be celebrating Chanukah. Please join us!

Katan – December 10th
Pre-Kadima December 12th
Kadima - December 5th and 19th
USY - December 7th, 14th, 21st

Dassy Horn, Youth Director
November was filled with feasting and fun! Our children were happily engaged throughout the month learning about Thanksgiving and the meaning of being thankful. All our classes cooked and baked traditional Thanksgiving foods like pumpkin bread, corn muffins and cookies. At any time of day, there were Thanksgiving songs being sung in the classrooms and hallways while various versions of turkey and autumn decorations adorned our bulletin boards. Our feasts were a success and enjoyed by all!

Our families participated in a new school-wide project that will hopefully become a yearly tradition. We incorporate Jewish values into our curriculum especially those of kindness (hesed) and good deeds (mitzvot). With this in mind, we asked our parents to keep an eye out for their children’s mitzvahs during the ordinary course of their day, no matter how big or small, and write down their observations on a fall colored leaf. In just a few days, our MJC Mitzvah Tree was full and beautiful!

We are all now looking forward to Hanukkah! Each class will learn the story of Hanukkah in an age-appropriate manner, learn fun songs that help reinforce the story, make keepsakes, and learn about our shared history. The children will also perform a special Hanukkah show for their families. We cannot wait to kvell along with everyone!

Wishing everyone a wonderful holiday and winter break!

Chag Sameach,
Rita Rashotsky

Men’s Club Tikkun Olam aka Haimisha Helper Houston (Keys and Puerto Rico too)

We take Tikkun Olam seriously and after many months, MJC Men’s Club is taking the lead in helping those affected by recent Hurricanes repair their world. A small contingent from our community will head to the greater Houston area during the week between Christmas and New Year’s to help that community clean up and get back on their feet. Volunteers are still needed to staff the food bank counters, and to assist on construction sites, no skills needed just a willingness to help. As many men who can make it are needed and since it’s a school break, maybe it will be a chance to bring your older teens with you to help another community. In Florida, the lower Keys are still in need of many helping hands. We can send a group of men there as well for several days of clean up. Finally, in Puerto Rico, their request is a bit different. They asked for gift cards from stores such as Home Depot, Walgreen’s and CVS, Sam’s Club and Costco, as well as OTC Medications. If you can help, please send cards and medication to MJC, attention Men’s Club, so we can arrange a shipment. Finally, we are in need of financial donations if you can to help offset the costs of our trip. Flights, hotels, rental cars, meals and supplies are expensive. If we raise enough to cover our costs, any additional funds will be used in the communities we helped further the impact of MJC. Please consider joining us if you can or making a donation of cash, cards, medication or time.

Volleyball continues in the Chai. Our next game is scheduled for December 10th and more dates scheduled on January 7th, January 28th and February 11th. Watch the weekly email for final time and details. We usually play for about an hour or so. It’s something fun to do to get out of the house on a Sunday. We hope you can make it and bring a friend with you. There’s no cost and refreshments are served.

During November we honored our Men’s Club member and MJC Past President, Jeff Katz, as our Man of the Year. We also honored three outstanding Young Men - Josh Eiger, Cory Fox and Jason Sherman. Thank you to everyone who came out to honor these fine men.

Haimisha Helper is here to help you if you have a need for some small projects in your home. Reach out to us if we can be of any help. If you need any help or additional information for this or anything else Men’s Club, please contact us at

The winter season is about to start shortly. We have been having varied temperatures – from Spring, to Fall, to Winter. Let the winter be healthy and happy for you and your family and friends.

The Prime timers have had a good year. We will have our Hanukkah party on December 10th, 2017. You do not have to be a member to enjoy the party with us. The party will be lots of fun with lunch, latkes and delicious desserts. “Shlomo Shai,” a well-known entertainer to most of us, will delight us with his voice, music and charm.

The Prime timers have different types of programs planned for 2018. We will have an exercise class with music at one of our meetings. I will keep you posted on further programs. Our new season will begin in March 2018. I plan to arrange for tickets to see Ragtime in March at the Axelrod Theater. I will inform you of the date.

Looking forward to seeing you on December 10th. Have a wonderful Hanukkah and a happy and healthy New Year.

It is always easier and kinder to our loved ones if we plan for the inevitable far in advance. In an effort to serve our congregational family, MJC is fortunate to have a several sections with plots available for purchase at Beth Israel Cemetery in Woodbridge, New Jersey.

The Cemetery is beautifully landscaped and well maintained.

Plots can be secured by a deposit and may be paid for through a pre-arranged installment plan. Single, multiple, or large family plots are available. We have priced the plots well below the current market retail value, so we encourage you take advantage of this opportunity.

Please contact Bonnie Komito, our Executive Director, for further information at 732-536-2300 or e-mail bkomito@mjcnj.com.

High Holiday Appeal

What we do now sets the example for what is done in the future. We have withstood centuries of wars, the Holocaust, modern day anti-Semitism and anti-Israel rhetoric and violence. We owe it to those who came before us to sustain our traditions and promote MJC in a meaningful way. When you consider your Wall of Honor donation, remember, you are nourishing our community, created by a small group of founding members and now ours to nurture and to ensure that we remain financially solvent. Membership dues cover only 40% of the cost to run MJC and so we must rely on the continued generosity of our membership. We are one voice, one people and one synagogue.

Yachad anachnu ycolim laasot et hevdel…
It is together that we can make a difference.

Upon Kindling The Yahrzeit Candle

O God, Source of life and love, we turn to You at this time of remembering,
As we light this candle in memory of our departed.
In Your Keeping, the soul of our beloved still glows, As brightly as the “heavenly firmament.”
Truly, “the human soul is the light of the Lord.”

By Your light, may we who lovingly remember see light:
And may the memory of our departed abide with us, as a lasting benediction.
