Last Supper

Jesus knew that soon he was going to be killed. He wanted to celebrate one last special meal with his friends.

Jesus took some bread and passed it around. He said, "This is my body. Every time you share it together, remember that I died for you."

Then Jesus passed around a cup of wine for them to drink. He said, "This is my blood. Every time you share it together, remember God's new promise to be with you forever."

After they ate he said, "When I am gone, it will be your job to share God's love with everyone the same way I did."

"How should we do that?" asked his friend Peter.

"Remember that I came to be a servant. So you serve others like I did."

REMEMBER THIS

COMMUNION

A time when we remember Jesus' last supper and celebrate that Jesus is right here with us.

ACTIVITY TITLE!

This secret message uses a grid cipher. Use the coordinates in the key to find out what Jesus said about communion. The first two are done for you.

Did You Know?

Maundy Thursday is called that because "Maundy" means "command." It refers to Jesus' command to love and be servants to each other.

TRY IT AT HOME!

With your family, come up with some ideas for acts of kindness you could do for others and not get found out. Then do a few of them together!
