Rooted and Grounded in Love, Stewardship 2024

73% as of November 7

Our 2025 pledge goal is $968,000. That is a 10 percent increase over our 2024 budget. After making sure that our salaries and utilities are keeping pace with inflation, the majority of these additional funds will be used for building maintenance and capital repairs. In a word, ROOFS! Please prayerfully consider, if you are able, increasing your pledge for next year. You should have received a pledge card in the mail. Additional pledge cards are available in the office and at both services. Fitting in with our theme of being "Rooted and Grounded in Love," your pledge will help to bring life to the palm frond. More importantly, it will help to bring life to doing God's work together. We hope to have the frond fully alive by November 24, the Sunday before Thanksgiving.

Celtic Christmas is back, with two performances this year, on Friday, December 13 and Saturday, December 14. After turning away nearly one hundred people in 2023, the decision was made to offer two performances and to move toward a ticketed admission. A highlight is the stunning 50-voice choir combining the singers of FPC and the Via Nova Chorale. Returning by popular demand are the incredible Lubben Brothers Celtic Band and bagpiper Kevin Weigand and award-winning Irish dancer Suzanne Ceasar. At $25, this will be lowest price for the best event of the holiday season! Students college-age and under are free, and sponsorships are available for anyone needing help with admission. Don't miss this festive, and inspiring celebration!

Family Promise - Dinners Needed in November

Francis House has been home to a mother, father, and four-year old son since Hurricane Debby caused them to be displaced from their rental. Several houses of worship have delivered a hot meal each Saturday to the family at Francis House. First Presbyterian members are asked to make meals for the five Saturdays in November. The meal can be homemade, store/restaurant purchased, or a combination of the two. For details please contact Pam Mathes, cellphone (518) 495-3776 or email pjmathes@hotmail.com.

Bible Study

The third lesson of the PW Horizons Bible Study, Let Justice Roll Down is called "Food Justice." We will learn about producing food with justice and peace. All are invited to join us for this Bible study. Elaine Barnett will be leading the lesson on Wednesday, November 20 at 10:00 a.m. We look forward to some lively discussions and learning about how the earth can produce enough food to feed the world's population, yet there are so many starving worldwide. The study guide is optional. However, Elaine Barnett can send you a copy if you would like one. Contact Elaine at ewbarnet@me.com for the Zoom link.

The Presbyterian Women Thank Offering

Each Year Presbyterian Women reach out to their congregations to heed the call of Paul and "supply the needs of the saints." This grant-making program, called The Thank Offering, was born in 1888, when Eliza Clokey of Springfield, Ohio, asked women to give $1 above and beyond their usual contribution to the Women's General Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian Church of North America as a thank offering to their Lord. The out-pouring was so great that it was credited with saving the worldwide missionary movement of the church at that time. This was an above-and-beyond offering, $1 is equal to about $25 today.

Many orginizations apply for these grants that range from $5,000 to $50,000. This year, eight projects were chosen. Six serve people in the US and two are international. Forty percent of the offering funds health ministries. More descriptions of the recipients can be found in the News@First.
