SUMMER FOOD PROGRAM

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Why do you serve the meals that you do?

The USDA sets meal requirements that we must follow. The meal pattern requirements assure well-balanced, nutritious meals that supply the kinds and amounts of foods that children require to help meet their nutrient and energy needs.

Breakfast
– One serving of milk;
– One serving of a vegetable or fruit or a full-strength juice; and
– One serving of grains.
– A meat or meat alternate is optional.

Lunch
– One serving of milk;
– Two or more servings of vegetables and/or fruits;
– One serving of grains; and
– One serving of meat or meat alternate.
