Revolutionary Vision

Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand because of their great age. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets... Even though it seems impossible to the remnant of this people in these days, should it also seem impossible to me, says the LORD of hosts? I will save my people from the east country and from the west country; and I will bring them to live in Jerusalem. They shall be my people and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness. — ZECHARIAH 8:4-8

Can you see what Zechariah sees? His people have been split in two. Some gag on the dust of rubble left after the destruction of their city; Temple destroyed, Hebrew school demolished, corner market obliterated. The well in the town square is choking on shards of brick. Their hopes are choking, their dreams are smashed, their faith is shattered like the walls of the temple. Relatives were snatched out of their homes and deported to Babylon; they are a persecuted religious minority, living in terror, without their customs and traditions to protect and shelter them.

Fueled by his passion for God, Zechariah sees what they can't yet see. Restoration. Recovery. Renewal. Revival. Revolution. A new relationship with God and with each other. And the result? Old people cherished; no worries about disappearing retirement funds. Children blessed with safe places to play and learn. Teens shoot hoops on the playground and dream of the college they will be able to afford. Young adults enjoy the right to vote, to make a living wage.

Zechariah is writing a revolutionary vision; he can see the result of the relationship God promises: They will be my people and I will be their God.

Can you see it? God's love for all of creation—creatures, earth, water, and humankind—is more than we can ask or imagine. There are signs of that love all around us. Rainbows, butterflies, vegetation pushing through the cracks of city sidewalks. The children on our pulpit, the Butterfly sandwich makers, and the smiling people in the park who receive them.

And there is more evidence that God's love is a force for change. 300 people came to our Revolutionary Love Conference; some 55,000 checked it out online. They came, they tuned in to find the presence, to hear the vision and to help make it happen.

May 21 is our annual Vision Sunday. We will share stories and seek to dream God's dream. It is our call to complete that dream. With love in our hearts, with revolutionary vision—we might not all get there at the same time. But we will get to that promise. We can count on God, who is our faithful partner.

Come dream a big dream.

Love, Jacqui

The Butterfly Meal Needs You!

Sundays • 9:00 AM, 10:00 AM, and 12:30 PM

Every Sunday before worship, from Easter through November, a team of dedicated volunteers gather to make bag lunches. After worship, team members venture to local parks to distribute the lunch bags to anyone who is hungry for one. To join the team, contact Cheryl Cochran at ccochran@middlechurch.org.

Just Faith: A Pentecost Bible Study

Wednesdays, April 19–May 31 • 6:30–8:00 PM • Parlor

The Acts of the Apostles is the genesis story of the Church and the Jesus movement. This is a tale with drama, personality clashes, cliques, political lines and theological debates—a little like communities today! It is also an organizer's handbook for building social movements. Come learn, pray, and question with Rob Stephens to discover what fresh truths the ancient Book of Acts might hold for us. A light supper will be served. Please RSVP at bit.ly/JustFaithBible or rstephens@middlechurch.org.

Mom's Day Off

Sunday, May 21 • 1:00–5:00 PM

Are you a mom who needs a day off? Join Moms in the Middle for a special afternoon of fun and relaxation. Childcare for ages 13 and under will be provided at Middle Church. The moms may walk to a neighborhood location for their special activities. RSVP required. Contact Lynn Min at lmin@middlechurch.org.

Soul Care = Yoga + Praying Dangerously

Wednesday, May 24 • 7:00–9:00 PM • Community Room

Nurture your spirit, body, and mind with self-care and spiritual practices at an evening of a yoga and praying dangerously. A Yoga class for all levels will be offered in the first hour. After moving together in a form of physical prayer, we will conclude with a session of Praying Dangerously, led by Christina Fleming. Please bring a yoga mat. Please RSVP to bit.ly/YogaPrayerMay or cleming@middlechurch.org.

Sunday—“Disrupt, Dismantle, and Dream” Literary Magazine 2017 Now Available

The sixth issue of Sunday, Middle’s very own literary and arts magazine, is now available for sale. The editors, Carol Wierzbicki and Harold Slazer, thank all the writers and artists who contributed their wonderful work! Also check it out online at <http://www.middlechurch.org/about/news/sunday-a-magazine-of-the-arts-at-middle-collegiate-church>.

Middle Collegiate Church is a celebrating, culturally diverse, inclusive, and growing community of faith where all persons are welcomed just as they are as they come through the door. Rooted in Christian tradition as the oldest continuous Protestant Church in North America, Middle Church is called by God to boldly do a new thing on the earth.

As a teaching congregation that celebrates the arts, our ministries include rich and meaningful worship, care, and education that nurture the mind, body, and spirit, social action which embraces the global community, and participation in interfaith dialogue for the purpose of justice and reconciliation.

Care Line For pastoral care emergencies, call 212-477-0666 EXT 318 to leave your urgent message in the Pastoral Care Mailbox.
