I AM SENDING YOU LIKE LAMBS AMONG WOLVES.

So many wolves, there seems to be a plethora of wolves in every domain. Wolves want to band together to attack & dominate; kind of like the power struggles we see all around us. So empowered by the Holy Spirit we are being sent out into enemy territory. We know Who is sending us & He wisely admonishes us to not go it alone. Go two by two for support, solidarity & mutual cooperation in reaching the unsaved. Such a large harvest with so few teams to bring it in. What are they trying to harvest? SOULS. That is what is up for grabs & we all know how fierce is the battle, thus the need for a comrade in arms to wade into the fray. And go out only armed with the Good News to a world starving for Truth. Even though they are starving they might not recognize or even reject the Truth despite their critical need for it. Our Commander in Chief arms us with His power & His Word but leaves the targets free to accept or reject it, such is the nature of Love. The Good News is not forced on anyone. Hopefully those we seek to harvest will see the fruits & the peace in our lives & want that in their lives. But we & the army of believers need to be totally committed to the Truth as was given & handed down by the apostles. St. Paul intimates, there is temptation & scandal even among the elect.

If I have been the cause of division, then I shall depart; I shall go away wherever you wish & I shall do what the community wants, if only the flock of Christ live in peace with the presbyters who are set over them. Whoever acts thus would win great glory for himself in Christ & he would be perceived everywhere, for the earth is the Lord's & the fullness thereof. Thus they have acted in the past & will continue to act in the future who live without regret as citizens in the city of God. (St. Clement, Pope)

In this sorely divided world & Church, such is the humility needed to achieve unity. Such disunity in what are supposed to be holy circles is an affront to the Kingdom they purportedly represent. There is far too much living as citizens of this passing world to be able to claim citizenship in the city of God. Let us pray for humility in our own lives & surrender our agendas for the plan of the Father so lovingly set out in His Word & embodied by His Son.

WHATEVER HOUSE YOU ENTER FIRST SAY "PEACE" TO THIS HOUSE.

The peace He offered us on the night of His resurrection is not some nice, cozy feeling but is the power to withstand whatever we are going through with our soul firmly planted on & trusting in the Rock that created & sustains & loves us & yearns for us to follow the Way home to Him. Blessed are those who accept His peace & lost are those who reject it.

Peace, dearest brethren, rescues man from servitude, provides him with the name of a free man, changes his identity before God together with his condition, from a servant to a son & from a slave to a free man. Peace among brethren is the will of God, the joy of Christ, the completion of holiness, the rule of justice, the teacher of truth, the guardian of morals & a praiseworthy discipline in every regard. Peace lends strength to our prayers; it is the way our petitions can reach God easily & be credited; it is the plenitude which fills our desires. Peace is the mother of love, the bond of concord & the manifest sign of a pure soul, one which seeks to please God, which seeks to be fulfilled & has its desire rewarded. Peace must be preserved according to the Lord's precepts, as Christ said: "I leave you My peace, My peace I give you", that is, I left you in peace, in peace I shall find you. As Christ left the world, He wished to leave the gift He wanted to find when He returns. (Peter Chrysologus)

In our Church & in our world, let us humbly pray for the peace that unites.
