

MOUD101: MEDICATIONS FOR OPIOID USE DISORDER

DAN HOOVER, MD
Director of ECHO &
OHSU Professor of Addiction Medicine

June 4, 2026 - 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM PDT

This webinar provides an evidence-based overview of medications for opioid use disorder (MOUD), including treatment selection, patient identification, and practical approaches to initiation and management in primary care.

Register Today
https://bit.ly/PSUD-MOUD

LINKAGE TO CARE FOLLOWING RELEASE FROM JAIL

MELANIE MENEAR
MSN, RN, CCHP
Clackamas Coiunty Sheriff's Office

June 11, 2026 - 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM PDT

This webinar explores gaps in SUD care during incarceration and reentry, including barriers to screening, treatment, and continuity of care. Participants will review evidence-based models and practical strategies to support referral, OHP enrollment, and successful linkage to community-based treatment after release.

Register Today
https://bit.ly/4eAtRMu

LONG-ACTING INJECTABLES FOR MOUD & ALCOHOL USE DISORDER

ANDREW SUCHOCKI, MD

June 18, 2026 - 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM PDT

This webinar will provide an evidence-based overview of long-acting injectable treatments for opioid use disorder and alcohol use disorder, with a focus on clinical application in primary care settings.

Register Today
https://bit.ly/4txUoO5

Accessibility concerns or questions? Brandon Clark, MPH -- bclark@orpca.org

CME Credit Statement Application for CME credit has been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians. Determination of credit is pending.

AETC AIDS Education & Training Center Program Mountain West

addiction medicine ECHO PROGRAM

OPCA Oregon Primary Care Association