WINE HOST BIO

Vinny Aliperti, Winemaker – Billsboro Winery

Winemaker, Vinny Aliperti and wife Kim purchased Billsboro Winery in 2007. Situated on over sixty acres on the west side of Seneca Lake in New York's Finger Lakes region, Billsboro works with Seneca Lake's premier wine growers to bring classic, European-style dry wines to its customers; Vinny's winemaking style is often described as energetic and fruit-driven with a focus on creating textural, contemplative wines. His dynamic approach has earned him praise both locally and nationally, including several write-ups in Wine Spectator, the Washington Post, Wine and Spirits, Wine Enthusiast, and VinePair. Billsboro Winery produces both white and red varietals including, Riesling, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Albariño, Cabernet Franc, Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah. While Vinny tends to the wines and cellar, Kim acts as General Manager.

Vinny's first introduction to winemaking was as a teenager in his grandfather's cellar in Queens, NY, as part of his family's annual tradition. After college and a stint in the Peace Corps, where Kim and Vinny met, he was offered an apprenticeship at Wölffer Estate in the Hamptons of Long Island. After three vintages (1997- 1999) producing mostly Chardonnay and Merlot the young family moved to the Finger Lakes where Vinny began his next chapter at the Hermann J. Wiemer Vineyard. It was there as part of the 2000 vintage that he was first exposed to Riesling production. In 2001, Vinny joined Atwater Estate Vineyards, where he was head winemaker until 2022 when Aliperti retired to focus his attention solely on Billsboro.
