
SV-ONE
Spring 2026
VIRTUAL LEARNING SESSION

Wednesday, May 20
11 am to 5 pm ET

Voices United: Patients, Families, & Clinicians Partnering to Drive Change

Join us to connect, learn, & collaborate as we continue building a stronger single ventricle community.

This virtual event brings together people with SVHD, their families, and clinical experts to share experiences, learn about current topics in single ventricle care, and hear network updates.

The Virtual Learning Session is free to attend and registration is required. Plenary and breakout sessions will be recorded to share with registered attendees following the event.

Please contact info@svone.org if you have any questions.
