

Daniel E. Tobergte, J.D., CEcD
President & CEO
Northern Kentucky Tri-ED

Dan joined Northern Kentucky Tri-ED in 1990 and now leads a team of ten, all in the pursuit of improving Northern Kentucky by attracting, starting and expanding primary industry projects for Boone, Campbell and Kenton counties.

Northern Kentucky Tri-ED, the first regional economic development organization in Kentucky, focuses efforts on projects involving advanced manufacturing, professional office/ headquarters, life sciences, logistics, data centers and informatics.

Dan holds a Master's degree in Public Administration, a Juris Doctor degree from Chase College of Law at Northern Kentucky University and he is designated as a Certified Economic Developer by the International Economic Development Council.

Dan is a native of Northern Kentucky and lives in Hebron with his wife Wendy and five of their seven children – with two older sons serving in the U.S. Military – an Air Force Pilot and an Army engineer, as a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.