

Renee Campbell

Renee Campbell joined our club in 2001. Linda Wooters was president when she first started attending, and Mark Wulf was president when she joined September 19, 2001. That was just a week after she and Ron drove back from a trade show in Chicago, because all planes were grounded after the 9/11 attacks on our country. (Ask her about that trip sometime.)

Rotary was just what she was looking for: a way to give back to her community, a way to multiply her efforts joined with like-minded members of the community. She saw right away these were people she wanted to be associated with – for a very long time.

She jumped right in working on the fundraising, membership, and fellowship committees, eventually serving on the board and as president in 2011-12. After that Sharon Starr asked her to serve as assistant governor to the Salem North region. Renee got her taste of service beyond her club and the rest is history.

Renee and Ron owned and operated Parrot Printing until he retired in 2009. Renee continues working in the business on the sales and business development team at Select Impressions, and serves some of the same loyal clients she started with.

She once heard someone say that the world is run by those who show up. She did. Although she is not running the world, she is trying to do what her mother said she should do, leave the world a little better than she found it, and you've got to show up to do that.
