Biography

Curt Arthur, SIOR, serves as a Managing Director for SVN Commercial Advisors, in Salem, Oregon, and is a member of the Advisory Board for SVN International. He has over 25 years in the industry and specializes in larger office and industrial sales and leases throughout the Mid-Willamette Valley. He is the only member of the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR), one of the industry's most prestigious designations, in the Mid-Valley. He has repeatedly obtained Partners Circle status with SVN International as one of the top 1% of advisors worldwide.

He has been awarded the SVN Ambassador, Humanitarian and Trainer of the Year since 2007 and has served on the SVN Advisory Board since 2009. He served in a similar capacity at Coldwell Banker Commercial from 2002 – 2007 and helped co-found the Global Corporate Services team for that platform in 2004-2006.

Curt takes great pride in his service to his community and to his industry. In 2012, he received the Distinguished Service Award by the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce for his lifelong involvement in the Salem community and his service to many local non-profit organizations. He is currently the President of the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce and a foundation trustee the Boys & Girls Club of Marion & Polk Counties. He is past Board Chairman for the American Red Cross Willamette Chapter, is a grant underwriter for Oregon Community Foundation, is a Melvin Jones Fellow of Lions Clubs International, has been a youth basketball coach for the last decade and is the public address announcer for the Sprague High School lacrosse program.

Curt is married with two children and resides in South Salem. He loves to travel, specifically to a family home on the Oregon Coast and to Mexico, at least once a year. He's a closet 'chef' and loves to golf and play tennis with great friends.
