

Gary Neal

Gary Neal is general manager of the Port of Morrow, Oregon's second largest Port. The Port's industrial park is served by Columbia River Barge Barging, Union Pacific Railroad, and Interstate freeways 82 and 84.

Gary graduated from Clarkston High School in 1971. He attended Washington State University from 1971-1975, majoring in political science.

He was the manager of the Port of Clarkston from 1984 to March, 1989. Gary was also a Port of Clarkston Commissioner from 1981-1984. From 1975 through 1984, Neal worked with his father in the construction development business in the Lewiston-Clarkston valley. He began his career at the Port of Morrow in March 1989.

Gary is currently on the board of the Bank of Eastern Oregon and Pacific Northwest Waterways Association and is past president of Oregon Public Ports Association. He served on the Infrastructure Finance Authority Board for the State of Oregon for eight years and is an active committee member with several other groups.

Gary and Kathy Neal have been married more than 44 years. Mrs. Neal is developing properties in the Boardman area. They have two children: daughter Rochelle is married and works for NIKE, her husband is a Fish Biologist for PGE and manages the Clackamas River Fish program for them. They have three children. Son Ryan is working for Port of Morrow Warehousing, as an operations manager and his wife is a registered nurse working at a local hospital. They have a three-year-old son.