
NOVEMBER 2026

The 100th Anniversary May Be Over, But the Story Isn't

READ TIME: 1 MINUTE

Do you remember the campus, the friendships, the traditions—or the people who made your time at Trinidad State special? Those memories are now part of a 100-year history that's preserved in a beautiful book filled with photographs, stories, and milestones.

Track stars sidelined from the NJCAA Track & Field meet in Hutchinson, Kansas, after the devastating Trinidad flood forces the team to cancel

Charles Gladney, Tarzan Honor and Bill Drake take first, second, and third place honors respectively in the 100-yard dash at Pueblo Junior College meet

The devastating flood washes out bridge in Trinidad

Mikio Sano, the second international student to attend Trinidad State

- 1955 | Trinidad State enrolls 132 veterans.
- 1955 | Mikio Sano, from Tunabashi, Japan, enrolls in the gunsmithing program, becoming the second international student to attend Trinidad State.
- 1955 | Trinidad State establishes a Practical Nursing Department, in collaboration with Mt. San Rafael Hospital, to provide nursing education for adult women.
- 1956 | Trinidad State's first Practical Nurse class graduates 19 students.

Honoring Our Legacy, Shaping Our Future 57

You have an opportunity to revisit the timeline of your past. Somewhere in these pages you may find a place you remember, a face you recognize, or a moment that takes you back.

This book beautifully captures the 100-year evolution of Trinidad State—and your place in it.

Find your place in our history. Relive the memories. Own a piece of your history—order your copy today.

SHARE THIS STORY