2027 OFFICERS

The Nominating Committee presents the following slate of officers for 2027.

Voting will take place at the Annual Meetings on December 8th and 9th.

President- Evelyn Kennedy

Evelyn joined ECQG during COVID, and upon retiring, served as the Program Chair for two years then Programs Publicity for one year and now First Vice President. She has been quilting for over 40 years but continues to seek out new techniques. Some of her favorites are foundation paper piecing, collage, hand embroidery, embellishment and making small quilts. She loves that the annual Challenge gives her an excuse to try new things. ECQG has taught Evelyn how the positive energy of its committed members results in an amazing presence in the world. Yes, please!

First Vice President- Angela Raymond

Angela inherited her love of quilting from her mother, with impromptu Show and Tells and biennial treks from Augusta to the "Georgia Celebrates Quilts" show. She never dreamed she would relocate to Cobb County, join this guild, and hang a quilt in our show. But in 2017 she moved to Cobb County to finish up a 32-year career as an Electrical Engineer. Now that she's retired, Angela has enjoyed more quilting, workshops, and joining bees. She's found that getting involved has opened the door to a ton of inspiration and new friendships. Angela also enjoys reading, cooking, road trips, and hiking.

Second Vice President / Programs Chair- Leigh Ann Kloefkorn

Leigh Ann is a self-proclaimed Textile Junkie! Her studio holds antique linens, embroidery, weaving, knitting, and, of course, quilts. She grew up in Kansas, surrounded by quilts her whole life. Her mother and both grandmothers were prolific quilters. Leigh Ann's quilting journey began over 40 years ago when she completed a quilt made for her firstborn. Handwork is one of her passions, including embroidery and knitting. She loves modern quilts, but also her antique quilt collection. As a lifelong maker, exploring new ways to create fiber art continues to excite her. Currently, she is enjoying the improvisational quilt path.

Third Vice President / Membership Chair- Pam Cobb

Pam is driven by a desire to untangle knots, analyze chaos to create order, and forge connections through laughter. All of these came in handy for her degrees in Mechanical Engineering and Decision Sciences, which led to a career in competitive intelligence, cybersecurity marketing, and data analysis. After a layoff, she now makes use of her engineering prowess restoring vintage sewing machines. Pam likes making scrappy quilts with a mix of techniques, bringing the chaos of colors, prints, and pattern together to make an orderly quilt. Note: If you catch Pam looking mad at the Welcome Table, you should know she's not actually mad, that's just her resting face.

Secretary- Abbi Rabeneck

A traditional, (mostly slow stitching) quilter, Abbi's favorite techniques are needle-turn applique and English Paper Piecing. Abbi has previously served as Community Service Chair for two years and as Treasurer for the past three years. She has also served during Quilt Shows as Admissions Chair, Volunteer Chair and Vendor Chair.
She is a founding member of The Sisterhood of the Traveling Quilters Bee where she has truly formed life-long friendships. Abbi encourages fellow members of ECQG to volunteer in whatever capacity you are able. You'll meet the most extraordinary people! Abbi lives in Cartersville with her husband, Dale and Remington, a Chocolate Lab.

Treasurer- Sue Eisen

Sue went to the 2001 Quilt show and was entranced by the challenge quilts, joining the guild that year. She was evening guild leader about 20 years ago and was on the quilt show committee for Basket Raffle last show and Preview party prior 3 shows. She has been a member of the Divas of the Evening bee since it was founded. Sue majored in Accounting at U of Md and then worked in IT for over 40 years, retiring in 2023. She has been quilting and sewing for over 40 years and really loves learning new things. Sue lives in Marietta with Milo (dog) and Minerva (cat).
