Q: Do you need to be a member ISPE to submit an abstract?

A: No, you do not need to be a member, however you will need to create an account with ISPE to submit your abstract.

Q: Are figured or tables allowed in the abstract submission site

A: The abstract submission site is for text only with a maximum of 500 words.

Q: Are figured or tables allowed in the abstract submission site

A: For the ISPE Mid-Year meeting, only students may submit abstracts.

Q. How many authors can be listed?

A: You may list up to 20 authors

Q: Can the presenting author be affiliated with industry

A: Yes, the presenting author can be affiliated, but they must disclose that on the conflict of interest form.

Q: Can one person be listed as the presenting author on more than one poster/oral presentation?

A: Yes, one person can be listed as the presenting author on more than one presentation.

Q: Are the abstracts embargoed?

A: Embargo date on accepted abstracts is April

Q: Does ISPE accept encore abstracts

A: ISPE does not accept encore abstracts

Q: Does ISPE accept later-breakers

A: ISPE does not accept late-breakers

Q: Does ISPE publish accepted abstracts

A: ISPE will publish through PDS, ISPE website and final ISPE program

Q. I submitted my abstract but now I want to make edits, can I?

A. You can access and edit your abstract until January 31, 2021

Q: If my abstract is accepted can I make edits?

A: No, edits will not be accepted after January 31, 2021

Q: Do you accept abstracts that have been or will be presented at other national or international congresses?

A: Results that have not been published (not in abstract form) either on-line ahead of print or in printed version before September 1, 2021 will be accepted. Results that have been published (except in abstract form) either on-line ahead of print or in printed version before September 1, 2021 are NOT eligible for submission. Results that have been presented at meetings of other societies are eligible, provided they have not been published (except in abstract from) either on-line ahead of print or in printed version before September 1, 2021.