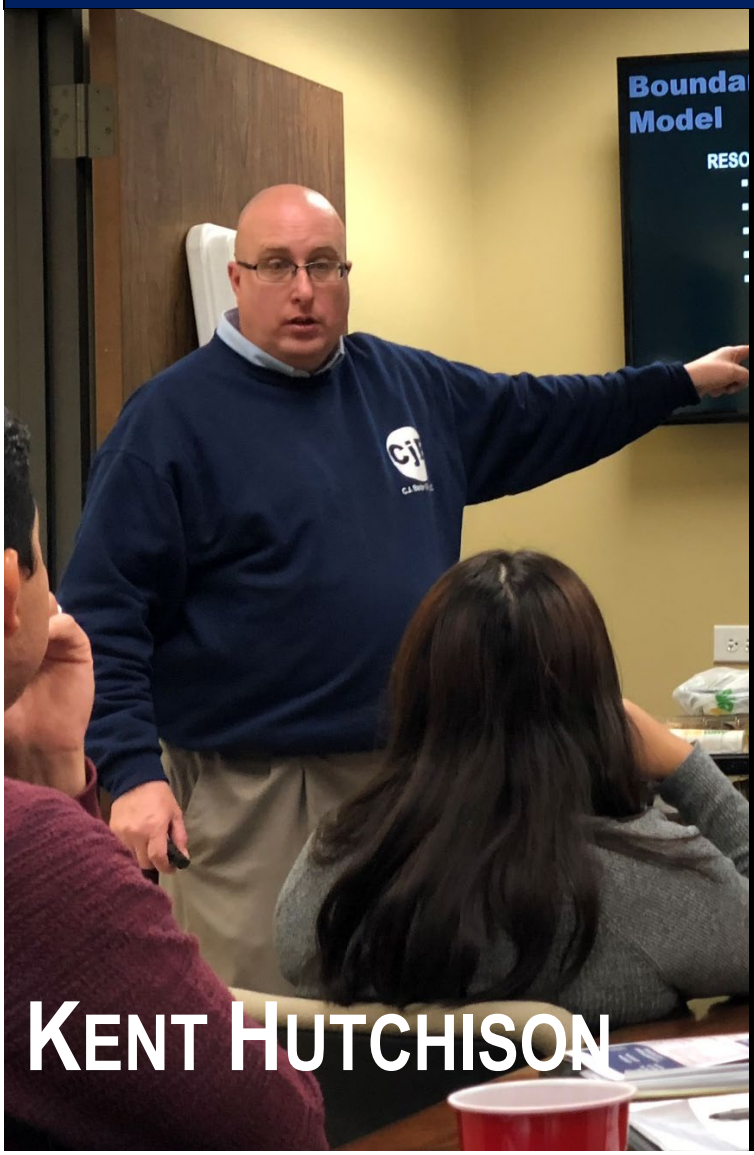
Chamber / Community Leadership Program Retreats & Workshops

Full-Service Retreat & Team-Building Facilitation



KENT HUTCHISON

CjB

C.J. Baxter Group, LLC

Are you looking for a full-service facilitator for your upcoming chamber leadership program retreat?

Since 1992, Kent Hutchison and his team of proven and knowledgeable facilitators help communities plan, launch, and implement chamber/community leadership program retreats. Programs include (but are not limited to) personality assessments, classroom programs, table-top game initiatives, and outdoor experiential activities. Kent also has facilitated individual monthly educational sessions as well as keynoting graduation celebrations.

Do you want one facilitator or a team of facilitators?

Kent Hutchison leads a team of proven, experienced facilitators. Some programs want (need) only one facilitator for their retreat; others may require more facilitators/instructors due to the size of the group or program objectives. C.J. Baxter Group employs a team of experienced team-building leaders that can help.

Not sure of what you want or need to accomplish at your leadership program retreat?

Kent Hutchison and the team at C.J. Baxter Group will work with you to develop clear desired outcomes and even help you design an interactive team-building retreat plan to kick-start the Leadership Program. With our movable retreat experiential team-building elements and games, we can travel anywhere. Please do not reinvent the wheel; contact us for a no-obligation consultation.

Wanting an experiential learning program but unable to afford a full experiential ropes challenge course?

We can provide a safe, fun experience with movable experiential team-building elements and classroom table-top game initiatives.

Contact us today to schedule a no-obligation consultation.

Jenny Senter

"It has been my great pleasure to work with Kent Hutchison through our Leadership Mainland program for many years. Kent facilitates our opening weekend retreat and wrap-up sessions with our leadership class. We feel that the retreat kicks off our year for this group and sets the tone for the remainder of the months to come. Kent does an outstanding job, and we willingly work around his schedule rather than enlist anyone else to facilitate our class. He educates our class members regarding leadership with a strong Chamber influence that is a valuable asset to our organization. Kent has produced many long-term Chamber volunteers through Leadership Mainland and gained a loyal following among those he has mentored. "

"When starting our Leadership program, a Chamber colleague I respect immensely recommended Kent Hutchison as the ONLY retreat facilitator to consider for our first class. Not only did he patiently advise me with what must have been boringly basic information for forming a Leadership program, but also he transformed a widely diverse group of adults into a close-knit group of friends for life. Kent is effective in bringing people together. Several in our group have booked him for projects with their businesses. Kent Hutchison truly rocks!"

~Missy Malechek, Former President
West Chambers County Chamber

Kent Hutchison is also available for training workshop programs, luncheons, & graduation celebration keynotes.
