Planning for the future is a crucial step for caregivers of individuals with disabilities, but knowing what financial options are available can often feel overwhelming. This webinar, presented by Plan Institute, will provide you with the information and resources you need to make informed financial decisions.

Join us to learn about:

- Key benefits and credits available for people with disabilities and their families, including the Disability Tax Credit (DTC), Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP), and the Canada Disability Benefit (CDB).
- How to create a financial plan that ensures a secure future for you and the person you care for.
- Helpful tools and resources available for caregivers, including guidance on how to access additional support.

Our speaker:
Liss Cairns (they/them) is the Program Manager at Plan Institute, a national non-profit organization that empowers people with disabilities and their families through education, resources, and personalized support. They focus on helping people navigate financial planning, disability benefits, wills and trusts, housing, employment, and caregiver support. Liss brings their lived experience as a disabled person, family caregiver, and professional expertise to this webinar, offering both personal and professional insights into disability planning.

NOTE: *This webinar will NOT be recorded. We also ask that you DO NOT record this session as the information can change without notice.
