

WILDWOOD OBSERVATORY

— BOYNE CITY —

Astronomy Club

Thursday September 8 @ 8:30 pm

1825 Wildwood Heights Road | 231.675.0393

NOMAC

NORTHERN MICHIGAN
ASTRONOMY
C L U B

*The Northern Michigan Astronomy Club was formed in January, 2011
to promote interest in astronomy in Northern Michigan.*

PRESENTATION ON TECHNIQUES FOR CREATING GREAT PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE MOON AND PLANETS

Discussion of technique, best time to shoot, equipment and software.

Followed by observing, weather permitting

Come sit around the fire and enjoy an evening under the stars.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

The Wildwood Observatory is a small private observatory built by Rod and Michelle Cortright. It is used for observing and astrophotography.

Directions: From Boyne City go north on Park Street, turn right on Wildwood Harbor Road. Drive half a mile up the hill and turn right on Wildwood Heights Road. The entrance to the Observatory 500 feet up Wildwood Heights Road, on the right.