Supporting the LGBTQ+ Young People in Your Life: Allyship for Older Adults

Are you an older adult with an LGBTQ+ loved one in your life? Did you know the holidays can be especially difficult for LGBTQ+ young people who may be experiencing family non-acceptance, religious conflict or social pressure? What better way to prepare yourself to support them this season than by joining us for an evening of allyship! This event is the first of a winter series. It will include a presentation, discussion and resource-sharing.
