

2018 Annual Government & Administrative Practice Seminar

Friday, June 1, 2018

University of Nebraska College of Law

8:30 AM-12:15 PM – 3.5 Hours of live and distance learning CLE

1:00 PM-3:00 PM – 2 FREE hours of live and distance learning ETHICS CLE (Member Benefit)

While specifically created for government and administrative practice attorneys, this CLE is also a fantastic opportunity for all attorneys to receive tips and tools for managing employee performance issues and sexual harassment in the workplace; reporting cognitive decline, substance abuse, and mental illness; and serving on boards and commissions. You are welcome to register for the morning session, the afternoon session or both.

Morning Session (8:30 AM-12:15 PM)

Caselaw Update: Cases That Matter for State and Local Governments with Stephanie Caldwell, Nebraska Attorney General's Office

Tips & Tools for Managing Government Employee Performance Issues with Jennifer Huxoll, Nebraska Attorney General's Office

How to Win Employment Lawsuits Before They are Filed with Pam Bourne, Woods & Aitken LLP

Sexual Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation: A Primer for Public Employers with David Kramer, Baird Holm LLP

Afternoon Ethics Session (1:00 PM-3:00 PM)

***Member Benefit of 2-Free Hours of Ethics***

Employment Law and Our Duty as Lawyers to Identify and Report Cognitive Decline, Substance Abuse or Mental Illness with Chris Aupperle, NLAP, and Jason Jackson, Nebraska Governor's Office

Ethical Considerations for Government and Administrative Practice Attorneys with Kent Frobish, Assistant Counsel for Discipline

REGISTER HERE: <https://nebar.site-ym.com/events/EventDetails.aspx?id=1058622&group=>

Amy Prenda, J.D.
Director of Continuing Legal Education and Editor of The Nebraska Lawyer
Nebraska State Bar Association
635 S 14th St. #200 | Lincoln, NE 68508
(402) 475-7091 | Fax: (402) 475-7098

