Happy New Year!

Rev. Paul Schult, Senior Pastor

Have you been to the top of Twin Peaks in San Francisco? It's one of my favorite places to visit. Whenever we have out of town guests, I try to make it one of our first stops so our guests can get see the big picture of San Francisco.

For most people, having a sense of the big picture helps better understand how the pieces of the puzzle all fit together. I suppose that's why it says in the book of Proverbs, "Without vision the people perish." When you don't see the big picture it is easy to lose heart, to get bored, to lose excitement and energy. I'm a big picture kind of guy. I need to see the whole plan before I know what to do next. I prefer to have a clear sense of where I'm going, what the destination looks like.

For the past 6 months the people of Redeemer have been working on a vision for the future. A lot of work has been done. There has been a lot of praying, a lot of talking, a lot of thinking, a lot of studying, a lot of processing. That's how a visioning process works – a lot of people think about all the factors involved and do the work of boiling it all down. And now it is time for the next step – a big step.

On January 21, our lead consultant, Mr. Kevin Ford, will be at Redeemer to share a summary overview of the entire process so far. He will share the results of the surveys, the focus groups, the demographics study, and the planning sessions. He will summarize all the work so far, and ask you to discuss it, react to it, think about it, pray about it, and add your thoughts.

Sunday, January 21 – 3:00 -5:00 PM – Congregational Update and Overview (with Dinner to follow)

It will be a big and important day for Redeemer as God's vision for the future continues to be painted. Please do everything you can to be there and be a part of the process as it unfolds. And I would continue to ask this favor of you – pray! Please pray for the Holy Spirit to give the people of Redeemer a clear vision for the future, and the faith and courage to do whatever God asks of us in the work of his kingdom.

Happy New Year to you and your family! I pray that 2018 will be filled with new adventures of faith that help you love and trust Jesus more and more every day. And I pray that 2018 will bring a clear vision of the future for Redeemer – that unites us in mission.

Making Life Work – #proverbschallenge

The book of Proverbs is one of the most practical books in the Bible! Jesus said the second most important truth in life is to love your neighbor as yourself. In the book of Proverbs God teaches us in very concrete and clear ways how to love our neighbors. It talks about critically important issues in life like:

Money and generosity, resolving conflict, living with integrity and honor, using power and authority to serve people, marriage and family....and plenty more.

#proverbschallenge = read one chapter of Proverbs each day for a month – and you will have read the whole book! As you do it, ask God to give you his wisdom.

Life Enrichment

by Board Member, Virginia Nelson

God enables us through Life Enrichment Ministry to enhance our latter years by sharing with others our Christian love and fellowship.

The Fellowship Hall was decorated in the Christmas Season, welcoming all the guests in the Christmas spirit, really beautiful! Many thanks again to Madel for organizing these events each month. It was also nice to see a couple of new faces in the group; Marilyn and Pete Tinderholt, welcome you two!

The fun began with Pastor Paul starting us off with some cute jokes again....so, so funny. Here are a couple of them. Knock knock. Who's there? Donut, donut who? Donut open til Christmas. Knock Knock. Who's there? Rabbit. Rabbit who? Rabbit up carefully, it's a present. Knock knock. Who's there? Rudolph. Rudolph who? Money is the Rudolph all evil!

Pastor Paul led us in singing Happy Birthday to all who are celebrating a birthday this month. He then mentioned the Notes to My Loved Ones, and passed out Emergency Contact papers for us to fill out and submit to the office. This is very important for the office to have on file, if you don't have one please ask us and we will get you one.

Ruth reminded us of the congregational meeting and brought us up to date on Street Life Ministries. She then had some good warming up exercises for us, felt so good, thanks again Ruth.

Eric and Joan were back again this year with all of their Christmas songs. She played the piano and he sang. He started off with Deck The Halls and Holly Jolly Christmas it was so good, not only has he a great singing voice but he also has a great sense of humor; very entertaining.

Al Diaz prepared his famous beef stew and warm rolls for lunch, yum yum, and cupcakes for dessert.

$42.00 was donated for the Street Life Ministries program. Thanks again for your generous support; this is a wonderful program; helping those in need.

Just a little reminder; if you have any needs such as small jobs around your house or need a ride to any events please let us know and we'll try to help. We are here for you. Also if there is anything special you want to see at our lunches please let us know, we love to hear any ideas you may have.

Next month Clayton Duval will be preparing our lunch and Jim Stevens will be our entertainment. He is really good, hope you all will join us. God always gives us a good time together where we can talk, laugh and share our lives with each other. So see you in January and bring a friend if you can.

Youth Ministries

by Corey Garrity, Minister to Youth and Young Adults

AfterHours Has Launched!

I came across a quote from one of my favorite actresses, Zooey Deschanel, she said, "Nothing could be as hard as middle school."

Having the opportunity to spend time with the middle school students at Redeemer has been an honor! Being able to do life with the kids over the past 4 months has done remarkable things. It has reminded me that life is about the simple things—some being love, joy, laughter and loyalty. It's has also forced me to be introspective and reflective on my own life, especially around the years I was in middle school.

It was a trivial time in my life—debatably some of the hardest and darkest. Not only was I struggling with my identity and just trying to "fit-in," but it was a time when my parents were separated, and left me with many questions. To Zooey Deschanel's point—middle school is pretty darn tough. It's filled with emotion, uncertainty, fear—and a lot of those being new to the students if you pick up what I'm putting down.

Getting to know the students and their stories, opened the floodgates of my heart and soul towards them. Through guidance and prayer—a group of high school, college and young adult leaders, decided to start a community for middle school students called "AfterHours." We had a soft launch on December 10th, and will continue AfterHours on a regular basis in January.

The soft launch had around 60 students in attendance, and we are hoping to continue making room for more students to find purpose and solid identity through Jesus' deep and unconditional love.

As we prepare for January and what's ahead for AfterHours, I want to say thank you for your support and encouragement. Each of you hold a special place in my heart as you have given me the opportunity to know you, your families and students. May you find rest this Christmas in the reality of how deeply loved you are.

All for Love,

Advent by Candlelight

Thank you for bringing your friends and family to Advent by Candlelight, what a joyous evening. Our guest speaker, Priscilla Newton reminded us about the joy we have in our Savior, Jesus Christ and Violeta Evans led us with Christmas carols. There were women from Bethany Lutheran Church, Menlo Park and Lutheran Church of Our Savior, Pacifica attend. Our coffee servers were outstanding, Jim Bradley, Paul Soule, and Mike Mancini, you each made us feel so special. To those who brought cookies, hosted a table, helped with cleanup, thank you.

Christmas Tea

CHRISTMAS TEA- We dined on delicious sandwiches and cookies. Dorothy Patterson served us coffee or tea using the beautiful silver tea set. Mrs. Maier's 3rd grade class entertained us with Knock-Knock jokes while the AV people were working on the sound. We were totally entertained. The children presented "All About That Baby". The music & singing was great! This class enjoys each other as you watched them passing around the mics, reminding each person other where to stand, they seemed to enjoy the play as much as we did
