Congressman-elect Edwards Announces Location of Main District Office

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. - Congressman-elect Chuck Edwards (NC-11) today announced that his main district office will be located in Hendersonville, North Carolina.

The office, which will open on January 3, 2023, will serve constituents living in North Carolina's 11th congressional district.

Caseworkers and other staff will be available to assist those in need of help with federal agencies, including the VA, Social Security, immigration issues, passports, and the IRS.

"My motto in the North Carolina Senate was 'First in constituent services,' and that will continue to be my and my staff's motto serving all the citizens of Western North Carolina," said Edwards.

"Hendersonville is where I started my career in small business, and where I learned the values of hard work and integrity. Those same values will be at the heart of my district office, where my staff and I will be ready to serve and advocate for anyone who needs help with federal government agencies."

Constituents living in North Carolina's 11th district who need assistance can contact the district office at (828) 435-7310.
