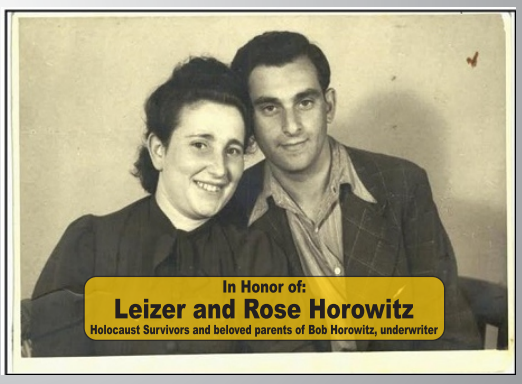
March of Remembrance HOUSTON

REMEMBERING the Holocaust and giving survivors a voice

RECONCILING descendants of perpetrators, bystanders, and victims

TAKING A STAND against modern-day anti-Semitism

Holocaust Remembrance Scholarships



9 Awards Totaling $7,500!

Students of all ages enrolled in high school, college, vocational, Bible school or continuing education programs are eligible to apply

The Holocaust Remembrance Scholarships, are created in honor of Leizer and Rose Horowitz. Educating and empowering students to become ambassadors of breaking the veil of silence surrounding the issues of the Holocaust is a key goal. The world needs future leaders to actively do their part to stop current prejudices and prevent future atrocities.

The March of Remembrance is a part of the Global March of Life, where memorial walks are taken annually throughout the world on Holocaust Remembrance Day. The 2018 Houston area event will occur on Sunday, April 15th, near Rice University. Details including location and times TBD. Visit MarchOfRemembranceHouston.org for updates.

Six scholarships awarded at $1,000 each and three stipends awarded at $500 each along with public recognition.

Register Online Today!

MarchofRemembranceHouston.org/scholarship

(Registration deadline is March 15, 2018)

For questions, contact Melissa Cruz at:

(832) 930-1088 or Scholarship@MarchOfRemembranceHouston.org

Education Chair Coordinator, March of Remembrance Houston