
The Interfaith Northern Great Lakes Stewards, the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan, & the NGLS Lutheran Synod (ELCA) in collaboration with The Cedar Tree Institute presents

THE GIFT OF WATER

CLEAN WATER / WILD PLACES (I)

Environment, Mining, Economy

FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 2019: 7 P.M. – 8:30 P.M.

Guy Rieter, Menominee Indian Tribe
Kathleen Heideman, Up Environmental Council
Al Gedicks, Wisconsin Resources Protection Council

A look at the public's ongoing grass-roots efforts to help regulate, monitor, and protect the natural resources of the Great Lakes. With specific focus on Aquila Resources Back Forty open pit sulfide mine proposed for the Menominee River, located on the Wisconsin-Michigan border.

CLEAN WATER / WILD PLACES (II)

Environment, Mining, Economy

FRIDAY, MAY 23, 2019: 7 P.M. – 8:30 P. M.

With invited presentations from Aquila Resources & Eagle Mine regarding standards, policies and regulation for responsible mining operation.

The Northern Great Lakes Interfaith Water Stewards include representatives from Lutheran (ELCA), Buddhist, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Methodist, Jewish, & Roman Catholic traditions.

COMMUNITY PRESENTATIONS AT
MESSIAH LUTHERAN CHURCH•305 W Magnetic, Marquette
With music by Michael Waite and Friends