Clinicians

Ellie Hodder holds a Bachelor of Music Degree from Crane School of Music, an advanced teaching certificate from New York State and a Master of Fine Arts Degree from Southern Illinois University. Ellie is Director of Music at Murray Hills Christian Church in Beaverton where she directs a new inter-generational handchime choir, adult handbells, the Sanctuary Choir and FH&L contemporary worship team. Ellie is the Area 10 membership chair, founder of the Pacific NW Handbell Directors' Forum, the Pacific NW Youth Handbell Festival, founder/artistic director of the Pacific Ringers and founder of Coppers Classic.

Shayla Bailey is a Portland State University music major and a veteran handbell ringer of 13 years at the First Unitarian Church in Portland. She has participated in the Pacific NW Handbell festival several times and attended the International Handbell Symposium in Vancouver, BC. She enjoys getting involved with music any way she can and helping others showcase their own creativity, while learning more about herself from the experiences she has with others. She is honored to be involved in the Pacific Northwest Youth Handbell Festival this year, and hopes that you enjoy the performance and appreciate the countless hours of effort and dedication put in by everyone, onstage and off, to make this festival possible.
