Human Trafficking 101 Workshop Outline

This two-hour course is designed for social service professionals, and offers a comprehensive understanding of human trafficking. Participants will learn how trafficking works, how to recognize the signs, relevant laws, and ways to support youth affected by trafficking or sexual exploitation.

Training is delivered by a CARF-accredited program and follows a trauma-informed, client-centred approach. Upon successfully passing a competency-based test, participants will receive a certificate of completion.

Workshop topics include:

- The definition of human trafficking and sexual exploitation.
- The warning signs of grooming and luring.
- Who is most at risk of human trafficking.
- Who the traffickers are and the tactics they use.
- How technology is used to exploit and traffick young people.
- The laws related to child/youth sexual exploitation and human trafficking.
- How to access community resources, how to report, and how to support exploited and trafficked youth.
- The systematic changes necessary to support victims and survivors of sexual exploitation and trafficking.

The course costs $60 per person. A minimum of 30 participants is required. Contact us for more information about course fees.

Training can be delivered in-person or online.
