REGISTRATION COMPANION GUIDE

Welcome

Registration is now open for Education Anew: Shifting Justice - The Conference 2016. From November 4-6, 2016, the Communities for Just Schools Fund, Andrus Family Fund, Public Welfare Foundation, Transforming Movements Fund, and Cricket Island Foundation will bring many of the community partners together for a first-of-its kind convening at the historic Peabody Hotel in Memphis, Tennessee, focused on the inherent sameness between reform efforts for justice in education and reform efforts for juvenile justice. This invitation-only conference will cultivate community building, information sharing, strategy development, and interaction with partners and projects that can inform and enhance their individual and collaborative work.

This registration companion guide will walk you through the process of registering through our on-line user friendly system.
