Family Promise
Family Update from Dawn Hartman

A couple of days before Thanksgiving I was doing some grocery shopping when a woman approached me and asked if I remembered her. After a beat I realized it was Courtney, one of our Family Promise moms for the last few months. Courtney, Alvin and their five children stayed with us several times after moving here from Mississippi. I am very happy to provide an update for those of you who had the pleasure of getting to know this delightful family. During their last stay at Grace, they let us know that Courtney had applied for a new job and they had put an application in for a house. God has answered both of these prayers! The whole family was so excited about celebrating Thanksgiving in their new home and Courtney is enjoying her new job.

Volunteering during Family Promise week is rewarding in its own right but knowing “our families” are moving on to bigger and better things is the icing on the cake.
