Inquirers' Class

Teacher: Terry Johnson

(Telfair Hall – Axson Bldg.)

Begins April 7 and concludes May 19

The Inquirers' Class meets for seven weeks and is designed to introduce interested persons to the history, doctrine, practices and people of our church.

College Class

Teacher: Evan Gear

Room 72 (2nd Floor – Administration Bldg.)

Let's Study Leviticus!

The Jewish feasts, Jubilee, blessings, curses, and why does the book end with a chapter on vows of all things? What do these things have to do with people living in the 21st century? These are the topics and questions we will seek to study in the final five chapters of the book of Leviticus.

New Covenant Class (post college)

Teacher: Tim Shaw

(4th Floor – Whitaker Bldg.)

Studies in Exodus: Old Testament Discipleship

Israel has been born through the Exodus and given the Ten Commandments. Now what? What is next for the people of Israel to learn? Why is the Tabernacle so central? Why is so much of the Bible given to the details of its construction? Each week we will be asking these questions and more, as we continue to study Exodus together.

Berean Class (30s)

Teachers: Kenneth Crowe/Mike Hazeltine/Ron Parrish

Room 31 (3rd Floor – Axson Bldg.)

The Book of Galatians

In this short letter, Paul outlines the bombshell truth that the gospel is the A to Z of the Christian life. It is not only the way to enter the Kingdom, it is the way to live as part of the Kingdom. It is the way Christ transforms people, churches and communities.

Emmaus Class (40s)

Teacher: Timothy Foster

Room 30 (3rd Floor – Axson Bldg.)

The Bible and the Future

We've all heard the children's prayer: "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take." It's the question that never goes away—what happens after I die? Does the Bible provide any insight into the future? What does the Scripture teach about heaven and hell? What is heaven like? What will we do there? How concerned should Christians be about the Final Judgment? We will discuss answers to these and many other questions as we explore what the Bible says about the future.

Agape Class (50s)

Teacher: David Gobel

Room 70 (2nd Floor – Administration Bldg.)

Songs of the Bible

The Bible is filled with songs. From Genesis to Revelation, we find God's people repeatedly breaking into song. And why shouldn't they sing? The psalmists remind us that God's redeemed people have much to sing about. This class will study some of the greatest hits of the Bible, focusing on those that are not included in the 150 psalms of the Psalter, from the songs of Moses and Miriam, to Jeremiah's lament, to the the Magnificat of Mary, to the Song of the Lamb in the Book of Revelation.

Garmer Class (60+)

Teacher: Ed Forester

Room 30 (3rd Floor – Axson Bldg.)

Romans 1–8

"For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established"—What was the gift Paul is talking about? What does Paul mean by "being established?" "Your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world."—What did Paul know that they still needed? In this study of Romans we will find the answers to these and other questions.
