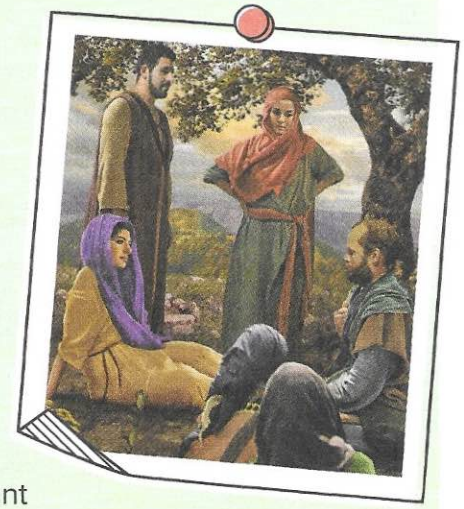
Lydia Learned About Jesus

ACTS 16:6-15



Paul and his friends were missionaries. They traveled to different places to tell people about Jesus.

One night God spoke to Paul in a dream. Paul knew that God wanted the missionaries to go to a country called Macedonia to tell people about Jesus. Paul and his friends sailed in a boat to Macedonia. They arrived in Philippi, a big and important city in Macedonia. They stayed in Philippi several days.

On the Sabbath Day, the special day to rest and worship God, Paul and his friends walked outside of the city near the river. They went there to pray. There were some women already gathered at the river.

One of the women that Paul met was Lydia. Lydia sold purple cloth. Lydia knew about God, but she did not know about Jesus. Lydia listened to Paul teach about Jesus. God helped her to believe what Paul said about Jesus.

Lydia's family also believed the truth about Jesus. Lydia was happy to be a follower of Jesus. She invited Paul and his friends to stay at her house. They accepted Lydia's invitation and stayed with her and her family.
