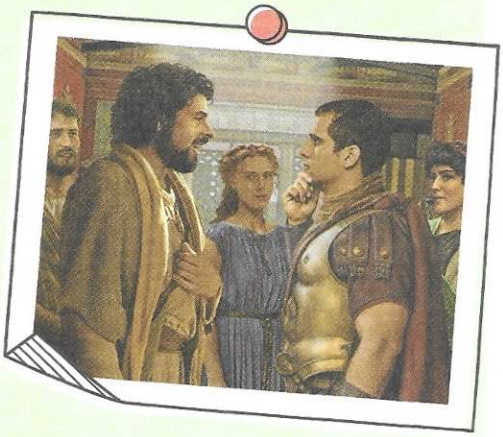
Peter Preached to Cornelius

ACTS 10



Peter went up to the housetop to pray. After a while Peter had a strange dream or vision.

In the vision Peter saw animals and snakes and birds. A voice told Peter to eat. In the dream, Peter shouted "No!" Three times the voice told Peter to eat. Peter thought about the vision. He did not understand what he had seen.

Some men arrived at the house where Peter was staying. "Cornelius loves God. An angel told Cornelius to send for you. He wants to hear what you have to say," the men said.

Peter went with the men to Cornelius' house. Many people were there. Cornelius told Peter: "I often pray to God. He helped me know I should invite you to my house. We are ready to hear about Jesus."

Now Peter understood that God wanted Peter to tell all people about Jesus, not just the people Peter knew. Peter knew God loved every person, and He sent Jesus to help all people, including Cornelius and his friends.

WEEKLY BIBLE VERSE: Go everywhere and teach people about Jesus. Matthew 28:19-20

LIFE POINT: People travel to other places to tell about Jesus.

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

The Bible story taught that people travel to other places to tell about God and Jesus. Peter traveled with some men to Cornelius' house. He told a large group of people about Jesus, and they believed!

LIVE IT OUT

Review the Bible story with your child. Say that many missionaries today travel to faraway places to tell people about Jesus. Read a book about missionaries with your child.
