

List 1: ch	List 2: sh
Long sticks used like a fork in Asia	A big boat
Your son or daughter	You wear them on your feet
Not expensive	A large, dangerous fish
Sides of the face, under the eyes	To remove hair with a razor
Coins, not paper money	Opposite of “he”
Small, red fruit	Animal that gives us wool
Part of the body between neck and waist	One piece of paper
You do this before you swallow food	To give light; to be bright like the sun
A baby chicken	Like a blouse

A country in South America	A square, rectangle or triangle
A very small dog from Mexico	To kill with a gun
Brown candy made from cocoa	Pants that only reach the knees or higher
To cut up into small pieces	To speak very loudly
Something you sit on	A place to wash the body
A building for praying	Opposite of “open”
To stop breathing because the throat is blocked	To get smaller because of washing in hot water
Fine ceramic or porcelain dishes	Part of the body where your arms are attached
A large monkey or ape with no tail	Opposite of “long” or “tall”
Part of a book	Going out to buy things
A small piece of paper you write on to pay bills	A big surprise, if you touch an electrical wire