WEEKLY newsletter

Great Hearts Lakeside 4th Grade: 11/29-12/3

Language Arts

Spalding: We will continue Section R.

Literature: We will continue our novel, King Arthur.

Grammar: We will review predicate nominatives, predicate adjectives, linking verbs, and direct objects.

Writing: The final draft of "The Emperor and the Soup" is due Thursday, December 2.

Math/Poetry/Vocabulary

Math: We will continue our geometry section with a look at angles and lines. Math Test on Friday.

Poetry: We will begin practicing our new poem, A Tragic Story.

Vocabulary: None, we will practice our poem.

History/Science/Latin

History: We will study the Magna Carta and Parliament. Quiz on Friday.

Science: We will begin oral presentations in class. Science Fair on Wednesday.

Latin: We will be continuing our study of Chapter 5. Scholars should continue to review Chapter 5 vocabulary words.
Email deborah.baptiste@greatheartslakeside.org

Teachers' Notes

*Science Fair Display Board: purchase to prepare for presentations (Dec. 1st).

*Take Home Folders: Please check & sign your scholar's behavior calendar and reading log daily!

* Suggested Arrival Time: 7:30am to unpack & begin bell work on time.
Bring Daily:
1.Book for Independent reading
2. Water bottle

Dates/Reminders

*Science Fair: December 1st

*Check your scholar's agenda to make sure they have completed their homework.

* New Novel Starts December 15th: Robin Hood