WEEKLY newsletter

Great Hearts Lakeside 6th Grade: 11/29 - 12/3

Language Arts

Literature: The week after Thanksgiving we will begin reading A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens and will cover Staves I-II. Scholars should bring their copy of the book on Monday November 29.
Parents, consider reading along with us at home as we enjoy this classic Christmas novella!

Writing: Our unit on writing from pictures continues this week and will finish with a final draft composition due Friday. Scholars who do not complete their final draft in class will need to do so for homework over the weekend.

Math and Poetry

Math: Math scholars will be exploring scale drawings, similar figures and blueprints.
Poetry: Scholars will begin memorizing "There is no Frigate like a Book" by Emily Dickinson. Recitations will being 12/13.

History and Science

History: We are continuing our unit on the French Revolution and Romanticism. Scholars should read Ch. 11 by Monday and Ch. 12 by Thursday and we will have a test on Friday.
Science: Scholars are continuing to discover the Animalia Kingdom and will have their Science Fair in class presentations on Wednesday and Thursday.
Science Fair: 2 Weeks Until Left! Now that students have completed their Conclusion, they should complete their poster board by Monday 11/29. Science Fair Packet

Latin and Vocab

Latin: We will be introducing the accusative plural case of nouns and read the story "Gladiatores" in Chapter 8. Scholars should be reviewing Stage 8 words.
email: deborah.baptiste@greatheartslakeside.org

Vocabulary: Scholars will continue learning Latin and Greek root words. There will be a review on Wednesday and a quiz on Thursday (12/2)

Reminders & Dates

Classroom Spelling Bee - Dec. 17
(top speller from each class advances to School Bee)

Behavior calendars should be signed each night.

A day without any codes on the calendar means that your scholar was ready to learn and meeting behavioral expectations.
