Dear people who say you dislike Trump, but agree with his policies...
I'm curious, which of his policies most appeal to you?

Is it his policy on women's rights - the right to choose what we do with our bodies and life that he has already taken away in some states, and plans to take away across the country?

Is it his policy on education - his plan to dismantle the Department of Education, creating massive havoc and harm? Is it his plan to remove our actual history from classrooms?

Is it his policy on removing conversations and programs on diversity, equity and inclusion, and to instead bring back white supremacy, hatred and bullying?

How about his policy on gun control - is it the fact that instead of wanting gun regulation and safety in our schools and country, he wants more guns in schools and has no interest in stopping mass shootings? Does this appeal to you?

Is it his policy on racism (immigration as he calls it) - to continue creating chaos and causing harm by lying, harassing, arresting and deporting people who are not white? Do you know he and his GOP friends blocked the Border Funding Bill which would've addressed the immigration issues he has built most of his fear-based platform on?

Maybe it's his policy to raise prices on consumer goods by implementing higher Tariffs (consumers pay for this), while also eliminating most of the farm workers through his racism policy? Or is it his policy to protect his corporate donors and allow them to continue reaping record profits through the price gouging they are doing?

Is it his policy on raising housing costs? Trump and billionaires like him have supported their own real estate and big banking donors making record profits with high housing costs and rents keeping us from buying or renting affordable homes. Maybe this is okay with you?

Is it his policy on weakening and destroying unions?
How about the GOPs refusal to support raising the minimum wage?

Is it his policy on him being above the law, unaccountable for his criminal and corrupt actions, of which there are too many to list?
Is it his total disregard and disrespect of our Constitution, laws and branches of government? Maybe you like those rule-breaking rebels... and think it's about time someone above the law ruled our land and took all of our freedoms away?

Is it his 'concept of a healthcare plan', that he's had 8 years to come up with and never has? Is it his plan to screw people who can't afford healthcare, and who have pre-existing conditions? Or is it his plan to cut Social Security and Medicare to fund more tax cuts for his billionaire friends and big corporate donors?

Is it that he wants to take away your right or pesky need to vote? Will that will make life easier for you... to have a dictator making all the decisions for you?

How about his policy related to FEMA and disaster funds?
Is it his plan to punish Blue states by withholding aid in natural disasters? He has publicly threatened to cut off aid to California for their wild fires. What a guy!

Is it his denial of Climate Change, because he instead wants to support himself and big donors in fossil fuel and other toxins that are destroying Mother Earth? Is this what does it for you? Is it his plan to sell off federal lands to profit off this?

Or is it his foreign policy - cutting us out of NATO, being besties with Dictator Putin, not being able to visit 37 countries because he has 34 felony counts, and most of the other countries (except dictator ruled nations) not wanting him to visit because he is vile and criminal? Perhaps, you want us to become like Russia, or maybe owned by Russia. He could start selling off pieces of our country to the highest bidder, starting with California.

Is it his policy on tearing apart our government and Democracy of the past 276 years, dismantling it all to fill it with his loyalists, who are criminal, crooked and crazy like himself? Is this what makes you say, ‘YES, get that man in office’?

Is it his plan to seek revenge and retribution on any who tried to hold him accountable to our laws? Is it his plan to use our own military to go after legal immigrants and anyone who has opposed him? Is it his plan to pardon criminals like himself and his friends who have violated our laws and US constitution through the insurrection he incited, the classified documents he stole, and so much more?

Is it his policy on hatred, blame, lies, narcissism, sexism, racism and bullying that you support? Curious... since these qualities ooze through every fiber of his being, and all that he says and does daily.

When you say you don’t like him, but you support his policies, you can see why I am confused. His policies are as corrupt, cruel and criminal as he is. He is the most dangerous threat to our Democracy and all we love that we have ever seen in our lifetime. Please, turn off the sponsored news media and the propaganda and lies and pay attention.

Truly, Teri Jo
