Statement regarding Former Louisiana State Trooper, Jimmy Rogers

Former Louisiana State Trooper, Jimmy Rogers, pled guilty today in 14th Judicial District Court to two (2) counts of Malfeasance in Office. The charges stem from duties as a Troop D, Louisiana State Policeman, working LACE detail and being paid overtime rates to work said detail.

In addition to receiving three years supervised probation, Rogers was ordered to reimburse the State in the amount of $2,519.70, which restitution was made in open court.

The case was originally referred to the Calcasieu Parish District Attorney's Office by Mr. Rafael Goyeneche, III, of the Metropolitan Crime Commission (MCC).

Everyone is accountable for their actions. Law enforcement officials take an oath of office to perform their services in a professional manner. That level of professionalism must be followed in every aspect of the law enforcement community.
