

LIMITED SUBMISSION

Dialogues on the Experience of War

Deadlines

Internal deadline: August 24

Agency deadline: October 24

Limit: 3

The National Endowment for the Humanities offers the Dialogues on the Experience of War program as part of its current initiative, Standing Together: The Humanities and the Experience of War. The program supports the study and discussion of important humanities sources about war, in the belief that these sources can help U.S. military veterans and others think more deeply about the issues raised by war and military service. Although the program is primarily designed to reach military veterans, men and women in active service, military families, and interested members of the public may also participate.

If interested, submit an internal application (or “pre-proposal”) to the Office of Research Development here no later than August 24. The required documents for the internal application can be found here. If the Division receives more internal applications than the allowed limits, an ad hoc review and selection process will be held. If an ad hoc review process is not warranted, those researchers that demonstrated interest will be allowed to move forward with submitting a full proposal to the funding agency.

For more information on this opportunity, click here.