

Pulling Together to Tackle Climate Change

2018 Climate Change Forum and Charrette

October 29-31, 2018
Yellowknife, NT
Chateau Nova

NWT Association of Communities

NWT Association of Communities
#200, 5105 – 50th Street
Yellowknife, NT X1A 1S1

Ph: (867) 873-8359
Email: miki@nwtac.com
www.nwtac.com

Ecology North
#5016 – 50th Avenue Lower Level
Yellowknife, NT X1A 2P3

Ph: (867) 873-6019
Email: admin@ecologynorth.ca
www.ecologynorth.ca

WHO IS BEING INVITED

All 33 NWT Community Governments

All Aboriginal Governments

Departments and Agencies with the Territorial Government

Federal Government Departments and Agencies

Researchers

NGOs

Climate Change Specialists

Funders

TOP 5 REASONS TO ATTEND

- 1. Learn how others in the North are addressing the Climate Change Challenge
- 2. Get to meet with experts in various climate change fields and explore working with other communities
- 3. Learn about and meet those looking after various funding programs
- 4. Networking between Federal, Territorial, Aboriginal and Community Governments, Researchers, Consultants, Funders etc.
- 5. Be part of recommending what climate change work needs attention in the NWT.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Sheila Watt-Cloutier

Nobel Prize Nominee and author of “The Right to be Cold”