

The Long Island Chapter Invites You to a Special Luncheon Meeting!

Contractual Risk Transfer – The Best Way to Reduce Contract Exposures for Your Company

Presented by: Mr. Mark Grabowski, Shareholder, Anderson Kill, P.C.

Contracts frequently contain various risk transfer provisions that can subject your company or clients to potentially damaging risk unless those risks are properly identified, managed, and transferred. The best way to reduce long-term liability and reduce risk is by using the proper indemnification and insurance language in business contracts and in related insurance policies.

Mr. Grabowski's presentation will cover

- Ways to draft indemnity provisions in commercial agreements
- Understand and transfer risk through insurance contracts & certificates
- How to establish loss control and claims submission strategies
- Risk transfer with additional insured provisions & contractual liability coverage
