

PETER TAMIGI

Peter Tamigi is Of Counsel to Milber Makris and practices in the area of general and municipal liability and construction litigation. He has also tried cases and argued appeals involving construction, environmental, toxic torts, employment and Civil Rights and complex product liability claims. After graduating law school, he completed a 2-year Federal Clerkship and had his own firm for 21 years before joining Milber Makris in 2016. He is admitted to practice in NY, Connecticut, Washington D.C., as well as a number of Federal Courts. Peter has been an instructor in the Paralegal Program at CUNY, a volunteer mediator in the Nassau Supreme Court and a Court-appointed referee. He is past chair of the NY State Bar Association subcommittee on Labor Law and belongs to a number of other bar and professional associations.