

Kye Allums

Kye Allums is an LGBTQ advocate, athlete, artist, healer, coach, and a queer fluid transgender person of color.

In 2010, they became the first black openly transgender person in sports history, and the first Division I openly transgender athlete in NCAA history.

Kye completed his education, and basketball career at George Washington University where he obtained a bachelor's degree in Fine Arts, in 2012. Since graduating, Kye has given over 100+ speaking engagements sharing his transgender athlete experiences all across the country.

Now, Kye is focusing on their path in life towards law school to pursue a career fighting for gender justice around the globe.