

The voice of Nevada's CPAs

The Nevada Society of Certified Public Accountants is Nevada's leading professional association comprised of more than 1,500 certified public accountants and accounting professionals in public practice, industry, government, and education. The NVCPA offers educational seminars, networking opportunities and legislative advocacy.

When you join the NCVPA, you have the strength of our organization to support you in your career and to be your collective voice.

Our organization works hard for you in the following ways:

- to monitor and influence important political and legislative issues through its active Legislation, Political Action Committee and by maintaining key relationships with important policy makers.
- to introduce, monitor, and influence regulatory and statutory changes affecting the CPA profession in Nevada through its close connection with the Board of Accountancy.
- to recommend to the Governor of Nevada knowledgeable, qualified, and respected Nevada CPAs for service on the Board of Accountancy.
- to work every day to enhance the exceptional reputation of Nevada CPAs through Professional Ethics and Peer Review programs.
- to provide opportunities for collaboration and partnership with other CPAs, and the sharing of specific knowledge and expertise, providing its members prospects for personal, career, and even client growth through our local chapters and monthly networking events.
- to produce the most influential and highly regarded conference in the nation for Accounting Professionals serving the casino gaming industry since 1978.
- to keep a strong pipeline of the best and brightest students entering the accounting profession by maintaining strong relationships with our universities and colleges, and by funding scholarships to students through out the state.
